THE UNIVERSITY OF SYDNEY

Mentoring:

One-day ONLINE Workshop

Tuesday 4 April 2023, 9.00am-4.00pm | Online by ZOOM

This one-day online workshop introduces in-service teachers to the research-based continuum of mentoring - from mentoring as supervision to mentoring as collaborative professional learning.

Effective mentoring to support the professional learning of both the experienced and the novice teacher requires understanding of the unique opportunities and challenges presented by mentoring philosophies and practices.

This online workshop is designed to provide opportunities to expand participants' knowledge of mentoring as they engage with research and link it to mentoring practice. It provides a foundation that participants can use to develop their own mentoring and the mentoring practice of their colleagues.
