

A Conservation Management Plan is a special study report that clearly identifies and describes why a place is important and then proposes an action plan, policy or strategy to maintain that importance.

- LEGEND:
- Conservation plan completed
 - Conservation plan being drafted (tender / construction)
 - Heritage impact statement prior to demolition
 - Future conservation plan
 - Registered heritage buildings not managed by the University
 - University buildings without heritage significance

