

Government Information (Public Access) Act – Disclosure Log 2017

Section 25:

An agency must keep a record (called its disclosure log) that records information about access applications made to the agency that the agency decides by deciding to provide access (to some or all of the information applied for) if the information is information that the agency considers may be of interest to other members of the public.

Section 26:

- (3) An agency is not required to include in its disclosure log information about any application:*
- (a) for personal information about the applicant (the applicant being an individual), or*
  - (b) in respect of which any factors particular to the applicant were otherwise a consideration in the agency's determination of the public interest in connection with the disclosure of the information to the applicant.*

File No	Date of decision	Description of the information provided	Whether the information is available to other members of the public and how it may be accessed
2017/5418	16 February 2017	Documents relating to the booking of the Great Hall by the Australian Republican Movement in December 2016	Available from the University's Right to Information Officers
2016/6709	24 April 2017	Documents relating to a project with the residential colleges.	Available from the University's Right to Information Officers
2017/6687	30 May 2017	Documents on the Queen Mary Building's income	Available from the University's Right to Information Officers
2016/6892	11 July 2017	Summary documents relating to payments made to the University since January 1 2014 by CPA Australia	Available from the University's Right to Information Officers
2017/7425	21 July 2017	Documents relating to travel and hospitality expenses	Available from the University's Right to Information Officers
2017/10481	17 August 2017	The number and species of primates used in research since 2012	Available from the University's Right to Information Officers