

Government Information (Public Access) Act – Disclosure Log 2022

Section 25:

An agency must keep a record (called its disclosure log) that records information about access applications made to the agency that the agency decides by deciding to provide access (to some or all of the information applied for) if the information is information that the agency considers may be of interest to other members of the public.

Section 26:

- (3) An agency is not required to include in its disclosure log information about any application:
- (a) for personal information about the applicant (the applicant being an individual), or
 - (b) in respect of which any factors particular to the applicant were otherwise a consideration in the agency's determination of the public interest in connection with the disclosure of the information to the applicant.

File No	Date of decision	Description of the information provided	Whether the information is available to other members of the public and how it may be accessed
2021/4774	4 February 2022	Information about the Warburton Arts and Knowledge Portal	Available from the University's Right to Information Officers
2022/21	16 February 2022	Communications regarding Honi Soit article published March 2021.	Available from the University's Right to Information Officers
2022/15	3 March 2022	Information about the university partnerships – Hong Kong	Available from the University's Right to Information Officers
2021/5334	18 March 2022	Information about investments	Available from the University's Right to Information Officers
2022/660	31 March 2022	Staff expenses, grade distribution ELEC1103, Teaching in 2022	Available from the University's Right to Information Officers