

Charles Perkins Centre Local provision notification and request to engage with industry

What kind of industry engagement does your research entail? – please tick where applicable
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><input type="checkbox"/> Donations or sponsorship of Charles Perkins Centre activities (research, educational, clinical, translational)<input type="checkbox"/> Direct funding or in-kind support of Charles Perkins Centre research projects<input type="checkbox"/> Joint programs of research on specific basic, clinical or translational research issues<input type="checkbox"/> Consultancy (paid or unpaid)<input type="checkbox"/> Knowledge mobility through secondments to and from industry under specific agreements<input type="checkbox"/> Commercialisation and development of intellectual property (IP)<input type="checkbox"/> Discussion and debate to improve the quality and openness of public discourse about academic industry relations
I have read and abide by the following University of Sydney Policy – please tick where applicable
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><input type="checkbox"/> the University of Sydney IP Rule (as amended 2002)<input type="checkbox"/> the University of Sydney Research Agreements Policy 2011
Risk Benefit Analysis – please tick where applicable
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><input type="checkbox"/> The commercial interests of the industry partner are aligned with improved public health<input type="checkbox"/> The commercial interest does not have control over the design, conduct and /or dissemination of the project<input type="checkbox"/> The commercial interest cannot prevent publication or dissemination of project materials<input type="checkbox"/> There is no reasonable likelihood that the relationship could result in indefensible unfavourable publicity for the Charles Perkins Centre and University<input type="checkbox"/> The partner organization (and if a subsidiary of a larger corporation, the larger entity) has a good record of corporate/governance responsibility Any relationships that that cannot respond positively to the above will be reviewed and managed by the Charles Perkins Centre Industry Partnership Committee.
Essential conditions to engage with industry – please tick where applicable
Where the risk benefit conditions are met, Charles Perkins Centre industry engagement can proceed if the following essential conditions are also met. If any of these conditions cannot be met or if there are any questions, the case will be reviewed and managed by the Charles Perkins Centre Industry Partnership Committee. <ul style="list-style-type: none"><input type="checkbox"/> The acceptance of commercial support does not influence the integrity of Charles Perkins Centre activities, including academic freedom to publish, principles of transparency, objectivity and the need to be evidence based

- There is openness and transparency around commercial support of research or Charles Perkins Centre activities (e.g., full disclosure in all publicly available materials)
- The industry funding is untied, e.g. industry contributing to a common fund that is administered to meet the Charles Perkins Centre research strategy, or through competitive government schemes such as ARC Linkage

What company/companies are you working with?
Please provide a statement of justification for working with a single company (up to 100 words.)

Justification for working with a single company

Please provide a statement of justification for working with a single company (up to 100 words.)

Key researcher signature and date

Signature:

Date: