

University Staff Professional Development

Globalisation of Higher Education

For over 10 years the Office of Global Engagement's Global Leaders Program (GLP) has been offering professional programs to international government delegations, corporate groups and university staff to increase their knowledge and expertise in their field.

Professional Development opportunity for your staff

Aimed at mid-level university staff seeking to deepen their understanding of internationalisation trends and develop leadership and collaboration skills. The program explores the critical elements of internationalisation of the higher education sector at both a strategic and operational level and offers the opportunity for participants to work in multidisciplinary groups on topical issues and case studies. The program is open to staff from across the world giving participants the opportunity to network and work with like-minded professionals.
