

THE UNIVERSITY OF SYDNEY

THE NEAR EASTERN ARCHAEOLOGY FOUNDATION

The Near Eastern Archaeology Foundation offers several grants on an annual basis to support research relevant to the archaeology of the Near East. Funding may be provided for but is not limited to: research in museums; fieldwork, if associated with primary research; in person or on-line paper presentations at conferences, and associated fees; costs of sample processing; costs of open access publication. All grants may include, where appropriate, funding for travel.

Applications for all grants are open to honours students, students undertaking a Higher Degree and post-doctoral Early Career Researchers. Applicants should be attached to an Australian or New Zealand University as a student, researcher, tutor, research assistant, or affiliate, or have held such a position within the last ten years.
