Eugene Choi, Body Scaffold (Tesseract), 2015 (detail). 4-channel video installation (dur. 5min), galvanised steel pipe, cast steel clamps, plywood. Finalist, 2016 Hatched: National Graduate Award (PICA). Courtesy of the artist.

Within the following pages you will find the results of the year's art practice of students of Sydney College of the Arts. In a period of considerable disruption, they have continued on their own paths of creative discovery to produce the work documented here.

Their evolving practice is guided by SCA's unique environment: vigorous studio practice combined with academic leadership in education and research. We will maintain this creative context for our many students whose programs extend beyond 2016.

The entire student cohort is represented in this tradition of the end-of-year catalogue. Each work, whether by a Bachelor of Visual Arts student or a PhD candidate, reveals the individual perspective of its maker, shaped by their SCA experience.

While each artist expresses their unique vision in their work, a thoroughgoing team approach provides the intellectual and physical support needed to unleash their talent. I would like to acknowledge the dedication and expertise of SCA's exceptional academic, professional and technical teams who have offered such skilful support to our students in what has been a particularly strenuous year. Thank you also to our generous supporters.

Artscene has carried its support into a second year, and we continue our long-standing relationship as home to the St Jerome's Laneway Festival, Sydney. We thank Dominik Mersch for his ongoing support for postgraduate students through the Dominik Mersch Gallery Award, and Arterreal Gallery for supporting an honours student through the Arterreal Mentorship Award.

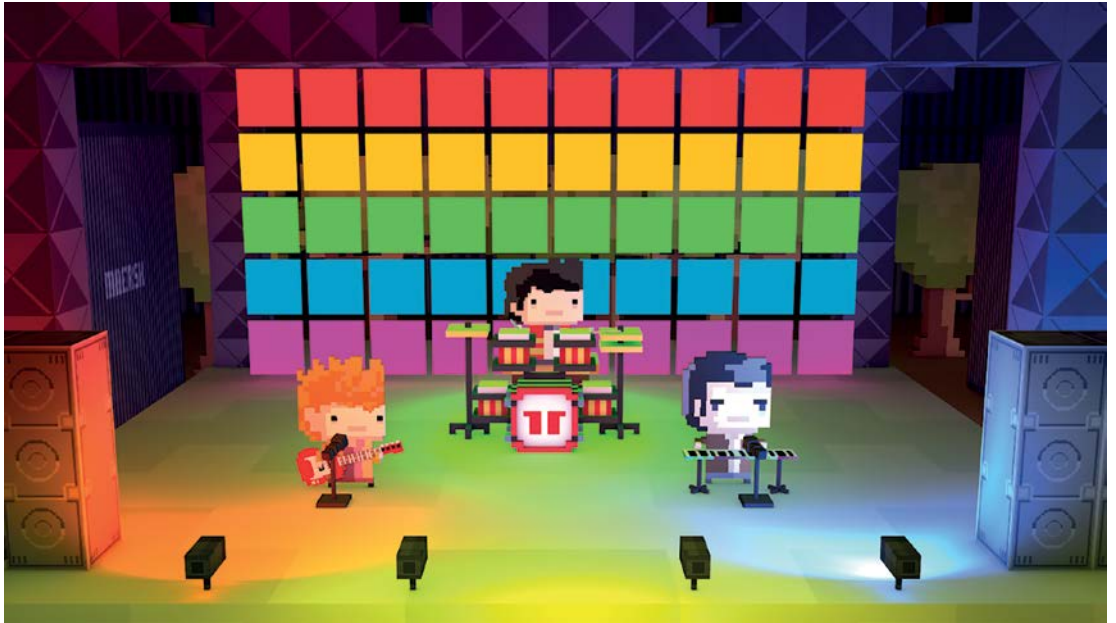

Four major awards we offer are the result of generous bequests. We thank those donors whose generosity established the annual Jerome de Costa and Dorothy Downes Memorial Scholarship; the Zelda Stedman Young Artist Award; the Fauvette Loureiro Memorial Artists' Exchange Scholarship; and the Fauvette Loureiro Memorial Artists' Travel Scholarship. Their support directly assists our students to fulfil their potential.

I extend congratulations to all the exhibitors in our 2016 Examination Exhibitions and Undergraduate Degree Show. I am confident our students will follow in the footsteps of their predecessors to become driving forces of art and culture in Australia and beyond. I am equally confident the SCA will continue to nurture such talent.
