

Partners in Veterinary Education Program (PiVE Program) Terms and Conditions

The University of Sydney's PiVE Program was created to recognise the contribution of our partners in developing the next generation of veterinarians. Practices who host students are invited into the Program annually. Students placements are essential and part of their course requirements.

Benefits for Partners in Veterinary Education Program

Number of hosted students	Recognition offer
1-4	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Free CVE Membership for one year• $250 credit towards CVE courses
5-9	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Free CVE Membership for one year• $500 credit towards CVE courses
10+	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Free CVE Membership for one year• $1,000 credit towards CVE courses

CVE Membership:

In recognition of veterinary practices who are a part of our PiVE program, CVE practice membership allows your entire team to access full member benefits (Practice Membership). This will ensure your team has access to premium continuing professional development, and access to the CVELibrary, a searchable archive containing 50+ years of CVE veterinary publications.

- This offer is for Practice Membership only.
- Practice Membership allows the entire team, once the practice has registered each individual, to access full member benefits, details of which are available here: <https://www.cve.edu.au/membership>
- Practice Membership is valid for one year, based on a calendar year, January through to December. Eligibility for this offer is determined by the Faculty of Science.
- Contact cve.enquiries@sydney.edu.au or +61 2 93517979 by 29 March 2019 to activate membership for 2019.
- Practice Memberships and credit are non-transferrable

CVE Credit towards courses:

In recognition of veterinary practices who host our students as part of our PiVE Program, the CVE credit works on a retrospective basis with practices able to redeem credit towards CVE programs and courses the year after they have hosted a student/s (CVE Credit).

- Credit towards CVE courses must be redeemed within a 24 month period from date of issue. CVE is unable to extend CVE Credit beyond the expiry date. Expired credit cannot be used for any courses or purchases or otherwise redeemed.

- If upon redeeming your CVE Credit, the cost payable for the selected courses exceeds the CVE Credit value, you will need to pay the difference.
- CVE Credit can only be redeemed by contacting the CVE on cve.enquiries@sydney.edu.au or +61 2 93517979 and your PiVE affiliation must be referenced at time of purchase. CVE Credit cannot be applied retrospectively.
- CVE Credit must be used in accordance with CVE's Terms and Conditions available here <https://www.cve.edu.au/terms-policies>
- Cancellation of your enrolment in a course is in accordance with CVE's Terms and Conditions available here <https://www.cve.edu.au/terms-policies>
- CVE Credit is not transferrable, redeemable for cash and is non-refundable

The University of Sydney reserves the right to review and change the PiVE Program and Terms and Conditions as it sees fit.