DIRECTOR'S NOTE

Ladies and gentlemen, welcome to a night of wonder and magic, a night of spectacle and extravagance. We present to you, The Greatest Show.

The theme this year is “The Greatest Showman”, drawing on a circus concept. To me, circuses have always been collections of the most unique talents from far and wide, and tonight, I present to you just this. Our “Greatest Show” is composed of the most special acts prepared by the performers of International House from all across the world. From the energetic performers of Bollywood to the upbeat dancers of K-Pop, historic pieces from the 19th century to the modern-day maestro Ed Sheeran.

Clearly, with the standard that tonight presents, there are a multitude of people to thank. Noah and Ahmad for making the gorgeous display you see on the roof and making the place Come Alive. Freya, for turning this room into a circus extravaganza. All of the amazing performers, hosts and organizers. Ethan, for some delicious bites. Avanish and Aqil for designing the most gorgeous tickets, posters and booklets. As well as all the people who have spent their time contributing to this feat. I would also like to extend my gratitude to the International House Office, Les for providing the stage, Matt for the most amazing photography and Katie for being the biggest support. And more than anyone, my partner in crime, the best producer Gordon.

The past few months have been a rollercoaster of emotions. We’ve had the highest highs and some of the lowest lows too. It’s been exciting, compelling and intense, but I wouldn’t have it any other way. It’s just proof that we’ve all put in everything we’ve had to offer. I think that the real purpose of iNight is to learn and to bring out the best in everyone and I would like to showcase just that. Tonight, is more than just a show, it is the culmination of our effort and passion, brought to the stage just for you! So, saddle up, sit back, but don’t relax!
