

MAK Halliday Postgraduate Research Prize

Terms and Conditions

1. Background

- a. The MAK Halliday Postgraduate Research Prize is awarded annually in honour of the founding professor of the Department of Linguistics. It is awarded in recognition of the most outstanding conference presentation or publication by a postgraduate research student in the department.
- b. The Prize was established in 2018 by the staff of the Department of Linguistics to honour Professor Halliday who was appointed to the Chair of Linguistics in 1975 and retired in 1987.

2. Eligibility Criteria

- a. To be considered eligible for this Prize, students must be enrolled in a Masters by Research or PhD within the Department of Linguistics under the School of Literature, Art and Media at the University of Sydney.

3. Selection Criteria

- a. The Prize will be awarded based on the most outstanding piece of original research in the form of a conference presentation or publication. The Prize will be awarded on the recommendation of a selection committee consisting of members from the Department of Linguistics or their nominated delegate(s).

4. Value

- a. This award has no monetary value.

5. Ongoing Eligibility

- a. None apply.

6. Termination

- a. The University reserves the right to withdraw the Prize, if the University determines that the student is guilty of serious misconduct, including, but not limited to, having provided false or misleading information that has a relationship to the awarding of this Prize.
- b. Once withdrawn the Prize will not be reinstated.