

Elite Athletes and Performers Scheme

Assessment Criteria

The University of Sydney and Sydney Uni Sport & Fitness (SUSF) assesses your eligibility for the Elite Athletes and Performers Scheme based on the following criteria:

- Time away from studies devoted to competition or performances during HSC (or equivalent) which have significantly affected your studies.
- Nature of the competition or performance ie, representation at state, national, or international level during HSC (or equivalent), or during other studies relevant to this application.
- Membership of an institute or academy of sport or member of any performing arts associations or institutes.
- The number of students competing for entry into the degree.
- Applicants rank and position in major competitions and performances.
- The number of places made available in the degree.

Please note that eligibility for the Elite Athletes and Performers Scheme does not equate to the automatic award of concessional ATAR points. Concessions are granted at the discretion of the faculties and schools of The University of Sydney.
