

Wingara Mura Resource Centre

The Resource Centre holds a comprehensive range of resources relating to First Nations culture and affairs, which can be accessed on-site. Please note this is a research only Centre and materials held are not for loan.

THE UNIVERSITY OF
SYDNEY

Opening Hours

Monday – Friday

9.30am – 4.30pm

Location

Rm No. N238, John Woolley Building (A20), Science Road

(enter via the entrance near Wallace Theater)

Contact

Librarian: Uma Ketheson

Tel.:(02) 9351 7012

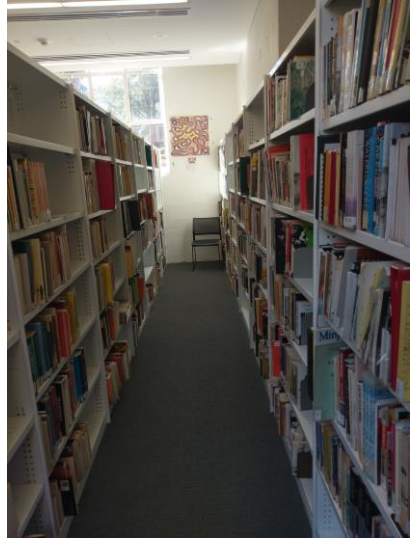

email: Wingaramura.reslib@sydney.edu.au

History

Library was established around 1992 for the use of block mode students of the Koori Centre. Formerly known as the Koori Centre Research Library, it started with a small collection of resources and has grown to consist of more than 6500 unique collection items including rare and out-of-print materials.

Collection

- ❖ Books
- ❖ Journals
- ❖ Audio Visual Materials
- ❖ Indigenous Newspapers
- ❖ CD ROMs and other electronic resources

Borrowing

The Wingara Mura Resource Centre is a non-lending research only Centre open to university staff, students and to the public. Available resources are accessible during opening hours and copies can be made in accordance with the copyright regulations. (one chapter or 10% of the book)

Locating Resources

Books and other resources held by the Resource Centre can be located through the University of Sydney Library Catalogue (<https://library.sydney.edu.au/>). An inhouse library management system (Bookmark) is also available to check held items.

Other Services available

- ❖ Access to Indigenous newspapers (print copy)
- ❖ Photocopy/printing
- ❖ Quiet study area
- ❖ Inter Library Loans (DVC-ISS & NCCC staff only)

Librarian can help you with:

- ❖ Finding Journal articles
- ❖ Finding items held by other libraries
- ❖ Database searches

For more information

Wingara Mura Resource Centre |

Office of the Deputy Vice Chancellor Indigenous Strategy and Services (DVC ISS)

T +61 2 9351 7012 |

E Wingaramura.reslib@sydney.edu.au

THE UNIVERSITY OF SYDNEY