Composition

Master of Music (Composition)

Doctor of Musical Arts (DMA)

Doctor of Philosophy (PhD)

When applying for entry to postgraduate research in composition, please submit at least three compositions (in different performance media) which represent your present level of achievement as a composer, present a 1500-2000-word summary of your proposed area of research/creative work and attend an interview.

After receiving your compositions, Conservatorium staff will invite you to attend an interview to discuss your compositions, background as a composer, commitment to musical composition and your goals. On the basis of the compositions, proposal and the interview, the Conservatorium staff will assess your potential for the course for which you have applied.

Conducting

Master of Music (Performance)

Doctor of Musical Arts (DMA)

You will be required to submit the following:

Music Education

Master of Music (Music Education)

You will present a 1500-2000-word summary of your proposed area of research; and attend an interview (in person or via phone). You should be prepared to discuss your background and research interest in music education.

Musicology

Master of Music (Musicology)

You will provide a statement of research interest and intent; and present a folio of academic writing. You will then be interviewed to discuss your interest in musicology and your commitment to musical research. On the basis of the written work and the interview, the Conservatorium will assess your potential to undertake musical research at a basic professional level.

Doctor of Philosophy (PhD)

As part of your application, you will present a 1500–2000-word research proposal, together with examples of academic writing. You will then be interviewed to discuss your research interest and your preparation for musical research at the doctoral level.

Before submitting your application, you will need to make contact with an appropriate supervisor. For further information about the submission and interview requirements for musicology, you may contact the Associate Dean (Research Education), Associate Professor Kathleen Nelson.

Opera Performance

Graduate Diploma in Music (Opera Performance)

Master of Music Studies (Opera Performance)

You will present a varied program of at least three arias at an advanced level of difficulty and to a high standard of excellence. In an interview following your performance, a general discussion of your current experience and future goals will be explored.

Performance

Graduate Diploma (Performance)

Master of Music Studies (Performance)

Brass

You will prepare a program totaling 50 minutes which may include the works listed below.

Horn

- Mozart – Horn Concerto No. 2 and No. 4
- Strauss – First and second Horn Concertos

Trombone

- Frank Martin – Ballade
- Berio – Sequenza

Postgraduate coursework

---

Percussion

You will perform a 40-50-minute program that represents the area in percussion performance that you are intending to focus on.

If you plan to focus on the marimba, for example, you should perform major works or concerti for marimba.

If you plan to focus on orchestral percussion, you should perform orchestral excerpts on snare drum, timpani, mallet keyboards, aux percussion and a J. S. Bach transcription on marimba.

If you are interested in studying a wide range of repertoire, you should perform pieces reflecting this diversity, for example, works for mallet keyboards, timpani and multiple percussion.

Piano

You will perform a 50minute recital of freely chosen works which must include a major work of at least 15 minutes. All works should be performed from memory, except for complex contemporary works.

Any complete major work of a minimum 15-minute duration by any composer will be acceptable.

In addition to the 50 minute recital, you will be sent a short study to prepare in your audition. The piece will be sent to you on receipt of your application.

Collaborative Piano

You will perform:

- A work for solo piano with at least two contrasting movements or two different contrasting works
- At least two contrasting art songs with a vocalist (the applicant to provide the vocalist)
- At least two contrasting movements from a sonata with an instrumentalist (the applicant to provide the instrumentalist). These could also be a contrasting movement from two different sonatas

In the audition you should also be prepared for:

- Sight reading with an associate artist (provided)
- Sight singing and reading simultaneously

The duration of the audition will be approximately 50 minutes.

Strings

You will prepare a 50-minute program including a major sonata or concerto, or movements from either, plus a virtuoso piece and some movements of Bach.

Guitar

You will perform a 40-50-minute program of contrasting works, which includes:

- a 20th century sonata (complete or one or more movements)
- a work by J. S. Bach

Voice (Classical)

You will perform a program comprising of a 30-minute recital of advanced and varied works performed to a high level of excellence and exhibiting a variety of languages. The audition would generally include a representation of the general art song repertoire. In an interview following the performance, a proposed plan of study will be discussed.

Woodwind

Principal study is available in bassoon, clarinet, flute, oboe and saxophone. Please refer to the Historical Performance page for audition requirements for recorder and Baroque flute. You will prepare a 40-minute recital of advanced and varied works performed to a high level of excellence. Up to 20 minutes of this recital can be unaccompanied. The recital must include one major work from the repertoire.

If you would like more advice about appropriate repertoire choice, please contact the staff listed for your instrument.
