

Prize Giving Ceremony

The University of Sydney Law School

Friday, 23 May 2025

THE UNIVERSITY OF SYDNEY

Ngyini ngalawangun, mari budjari Gadinurada
We meet together on the very beautiful Gadi Country

Prize giving is a joyous occasion. We laud the academic achievements and hard work of students who have excelled. We express gratitude for the staff, fellow students, friends and family who inspired and supported these students. And we come together to celebrate that we inhabit a scholarly community striving, collectively, to tackle hard questions of consequence for society with courage, commitment, and critical acuity.

The prizes that we award today are made possible by the generosity of many generations of alumni and friends of Sydney Law School. So, this is an occasion, also, to express our appreciation for the support that we enjoy from the profession and the wider community. We do not take that support for granted and we cherish and honour the contributions that so many have made to ensuring that our Law School flourishes into the future.

Seeing the range of accomplishments and fields of endeavour represented among our prize winners today, I think that we can approach that future with confidence, even as so many complex challenges confront us. Congratulations to every prize winner and thank you to all for joining us on this happy and momentous day.

Professor Fleur Johns, Head of School and Dean, Sydney Law School
