

International Insolvency Research Symposium

“Insolvency – Current Issues”

12th and 14th July 2022

Programme and Registration

Professor Jason Harris (University of Sydney), Catherine Robinson (University of Technology, Sydney), Chris Umfreville (Aston University) and Professor Peter Walton (University of Wolverhampton) are hosting an online international insolvency research symposium. The event will provide a forum to discuss topical insolvency issues and developments, including responding to the post-Covid economy and future of insolvency regulation.

Symposium Programme

Tuesday 12 July 2022 - 5:00pm – 7:00pm AEST / 8:00am – 10:00am BST

Theme: Corporate insolvency and governance

- Foundations of directors' duty to take account of creditors - Professor Andrew Keay
- A Tale of Two Financial Hubs: How Enforcing Directors' Accountability Matters for Corporate Restructuring Laws - Professor Wai Yee Wan, Professor Phyllis Mo and Professor Gerard McCormack
- Rethinking IP Remuneration - Michael Murray

Thursday 14 July 2022 - 5:00pm – 7:00pm AEST / 8:00am – 10:00am BST

Theme: Developing approaches to corporate insolvencies

- Approaches to insolvencies of wide public impact - Professor Rebecca Parry
- From SanLu and Hainan Airlines to Evergrande: The role of the state in resolving debt crisis of nationally significant Chinese companies - Dr Jenny Fu and Professor Roman Tomasic
- The Role of Technology in an Efficient and Effective Australian Small Business Insolvency Framework - Dr Jennifer Dickfos and Dr Catherine Brown

Registration for this free online symposium is open via <https://law-events.sydney.edu.au/events/international-insolvency-research-symposium-insolvency-current-issues>