

The Ross Parsons Centre monographs series provides detailed analysis of commercial, corporate, finance, securities and taxation law influences on the business world from a domestic and international perspective.

2021

Schemes, Takeovers and Himalayan Peaks (4th ed) by Tony Damian and Andrew Rich

2017

25 Years of Class Actions in Australia: 1992–2017 by Damian Grave and Helen Mould (eds)

2016

Towns under Siege: Developments in Australian Takeovers and Schemes by Tony Damian and Clayton James (eds)

2015

Before You Tie the Knot: Commercial Issues in Joint Venture Law by Tony Damian and JW Carter

Making Banking and Finance Law: A Snapshot by Sheelagh McCracken and Shelley Griffiths (eds)

2014

International Commercial Law and Arbitration: Perspectives by Nye Perram (ed)

2013

Schemes, Takeovers and Himalayan Peaks (3rd ed) by Tony Damian and Andrew Rich 2012

Restructuring Companies for Troubled Times by RP Austin and Fady JG Aoun (eds)

2011

The Takeovers Panel after 10 Years by Jennifer G Hill and RP Austin (eds)

International Commercial Law, Litigation and Arbitration by KE Lindgren and N Perram (eds)

New Trends in Sharemarket Regulation by R P Austin and I L von Kowalski (eds)

2010

International Commercial Litigation and Dispute Resolution by KE Lindgren

2009

Investor Class Actions by KE Lindgren (ed)

Directors in Troubled Times by Justice RP Austin and AY Bilski (eds)

2008

Commercial Issues in Contract Law by Greg Tolhurst and Elisabeth Peden (eds)

The Credit Crunch and the Law by RP Austin (ed)

2006

Company Directors and Corporate Social Responsibility by RP Austin (ed)

2003

Private Equity and Corporate Control Transactions by RP Austin and AF Tuch (eds)