

The University of Sydney Law School Postgraduate Lecture Timetable 2025

CONDITIONS OF ENROLMENT

Despite any publication or announcement, the University may change or cancel arrangements for courses or units of study, including in respect of staffing, content or location. The University will use reasonable endeavours to update the timetable with respect to any cancellation or change. The University will not be liable to any student for any consequential loss suffered as a result of cancellation or change, including travel or other costs incurred. For further information, please refer to Student Responsibilities

STUDENT ADVICE AND SUPPORT

The Student Centre is the primary point of contact for enrolment and administrative support. To make an appointment (in-person, telephone, online) or to submit an online enquiry, please visit Student Contact and Enquiries. For information on academic, health and wellbeing support, please visit here.

SEMESTER DATES

Semester	Semester start date	Last day of semester
1	Monday 24 February	Sunday 1 June
2	Monday 4 August	Sunday 9 November

Please see inside for dates of intensive units of study

TEACHING FORMAT

Teaching format	Class hours	*Duration	*Class times
Semester-length	26 hrs	1 x 2hr seminar/week	6pm-8pm
Intensive Mode	26 hrs	4 to 5 days	9am-5pm

*Classes will generally be taught at the above times unless specified otherwise in this timetable.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

A master's degree requires the completion of 48 credit points, while a graduate diploma requires 24 credit points. Unless otherwise specified, each unit of study is worth 6 credit points. Part-time students may enrol in up to 12 credit points per semester. Full-time students must enrol in at least 18 credit points but no more than 24 credit points per semester. Student visa holders are required to enrol in 24 credit points per semester. Award requirements of individual courses are published in the Sydney University of Sydney Handbook.

ATTENDANCE REQUIREMENTS

All scheduled classes, learning activities, and supervised assessments (including tests and exams) are held in person on the university campus. Access to classes and learning materials is granted only to students who are formally enrolled in the relevant unit. Students are required to maintain a minimum class attendance rate of 70% or higher, as specified in the relevant unit outline. Failure to meet the attendance requirement will result in an "Absent Fail" (AF) grade. For more information, please refer to the University of Sydney Law School Resolutions: Coursework Awards. Students are strongly encouraged to discontinue a unit of study by the census date if they foresee being unable to complete the unit requirements.

INTENSIVE UNITS OF STUDY

Enrolment

Students must not attempt to enrol in or attend classes for an intensive unit that is full or has already commenced. If you encounter enrolment issues in Sydney Student, please submit a Unit of study selection issue form to Faculty Services well in advance of the first class. International students should refer to Student Visa Conditions or please contact Student Compliance student.compliance@sydney.edu.au

Law School Class Timetable

Misreading the Timetable

It is the student's responsibility to note their class dates and ensure they attend classes at the scheduled times. Class dates are published in this timetable, Canvas and Sydney timetable.

Class Timetable Clashes

Students must select classes that do not conflict with other classes. If you encounter a timetable clash, please enrol in an alternative unit. Misreading the timetable or selecting units with timetable clashes are not acceptable reasons for class absences. Failure to attend classes will result in not meeting the class attendance requirement, leading to an "Absent Fail" (AF) grade and full financial liability if you do not withdraw by the census date. Please refer to "Attendance Requirement."

Publication of Grades

Grades for all postgraduate law units, including early intensive units, are published in Sydney Student at the end of the semester, around mid-July for Semester 1 and mid-December for Semester 2. Please refer to the Guides to grades for more information.

Assessments for late intensive units may take place later in the semester, and grades might be released after the official university date. Unit coordinators will announce the expected grade release date via Canvas. Final assessments for intensive units are generally due within 4 to 6 weeks from the last class date. Please consider these late submission dates and marking periods when planning your studies, graduation, student visas, and personal or work commitments. Enrolling in earlier intensive units might be necessary. The actual assessment due dates will be published in your unit outline, which is available about 2 weeks before the first class.

NON-SYDNEY LAW SCHOOL CLASS TIMETABLES

(MALP, MIL, MLLR)

Students should refer to Sydney timetable or consult with the relevant Faculties regarding their non-Law elective timetables.

ENROLMENT IN NON-SPECIFIED UNITS

Students in the Master of Laws and Graduate Diploma in Law can choose most units from the Sydney Law School postgraduate program, unless specified otherwise. Law specialist course students may apply to enrol in units from another Sydney Law School master's degree (up to 12 credit points for a master's degree and 6 credit points for a graduate diploma) in special cases. Students must complete at least 50% of the units specified for their course. Please review the eligibility criteria in the University of Sydney Law School Resolutions. To apply, please visit "Non-Specified Units of Study" in the Law Student Portal.

OFFSHORE UNITS OF STUDY

Each year, Sydney Law School offers several postgraduate offshore units of study in Asia and Europe. To register, please visit Offshore Study. Please kindly wait for your registration to be approved by the Law School before attempting to enrol in Sydney Student. Students are responsible for ensuring their studies are not disrupted by planned commitments. Planned travel is not a valid reason for special consideration or special arrangement.

UNIT OUTLINES AND LEARNING GUIDE

Unit outlines and learning guides are generally available in Canvas approximately two weeks before the first class. Access to Canvas is granted to students who are formally enrolled in the unit. If you are correctly enrolled in a unit in Sydney Student, but are experiencing problems with Canvas access, please contact the Law Education Support Team. Please note it may take up to one day for your Canvas site to be activated after completing your enrolment in Sydney Student. Past unit outlines can be found at Find a unit outline.

LAST DAY TO WITHDRAW FROM A UNIT OF STUDY

After the relevant withdrawal census date, students will incur a 100% tuition fee liability or FEE-HELP debt. No refunds will be issued for withdrawal requests received after the census date. Sydney Law School requests that students intending to withdraw from an intensive unit do so by the close of business on the first day of classes.

2025 DEADLINES

Intensive session codes or names may not necessarily reflect the scheduled class dates. For example, a March Intensive session (S1CIMR) might take place in early April. Please refer to the actual class dates in this timetable. Full details are listed at Study Dates
