As an SVI Member you will be the first to know of our events, grants and receive tailored information before feasting on mooncakes, usually outside under the light of the moon.

All across Vietnam, families welcome Mid-autumn Festival by placing a five-fruit tray and cakes with loved ones.

The celebration of the harvest is an important part of Mid-autumn Festival. The man sitting under a tree. Children parade with lanterns inAsia.

Traditions and legends. Our best-known tale is about a man sitting under a tree.

...Asian countries, the Vietnamese version has its own...