

CONDITIONS OF ACCESS TO ARCHIVES

1. That all research on records held in the archives of the University of Sydney be carried out under the direct control and supervision of the staff of the University Archives.
2. That records made available for research not be interfered with in any way, or have notations made thereon.
3. No copies of records can be made without specific permission being given. The written permission of the Manager, Archives and Records Management Services must be obtained before any reproductions are given away or sold. Any copying will be subject to the Copyright Act 1968 (Cth) and the physical condition of the record.
4. That no publication of the Archives of the University, or extracts there from, shall be undertaken without the written permission of the University. Approved publication of material in the University's Archives must acknowledge the University as the source for any quotations or extracts.
5. Non-sensitive personal information must not be disclosed otherwise than in accordance with the stated purpose of the research.
6. Sensitive personal information¹ must not be disclosed in a manner that identifies an individual without that individual's consent or the consent of the closest survivor.
