

Dr Stanley Jack Marcus Goulston

At a conferring of degrees ceremony held in the Great Hall on 25 August 1983, the honorary degree of Doctor of Medicine was conferred upon Dr Stanley Jack Marcus Goulston, MC AM.

Dr Goulston, MB BS Sydney, FRCP (Lond) FRACP FACP, was a consultant physician. He was Chairman of the Australian Drug Evaluation Committee (1976 - 82), President of the Royal Australasian College of Physicians (1974 - 76) and Honorary Consulting Physician, Royal Prince Alfred Hospital. He played a major part in undergraduate and postgraduate teaching at the University of Sydney from 1948, was a Senior Clinical Lecturer in Medicine and for many years a member of the Postgraduate Committee in Medicine.

From left: Dr Geoffrey Lance McDonald, Professor Henry Harris and Dr Goulston, recipients of the honorary degree of Doctor of Medicine, photo G77_2_0597, University of Sydney Archives.