

Ms Kathleen O'Neil

At a ceremony on 29 June 1985, the University conferred the title of Honorary Fellow on Mrs Kathleen O'Neil, well-known for her fund-raising work for the University, and the wife of the former Deputy Vice-Chancellor, Emeritus Professor Bill O'Neil.

Mrs O'Neil (centre) with her husband Emeritus Professor Bill O'Neil and her son, Dr James O'Neil, a senior lecturer in Ancient History at the University, photo, 'The University of Sydney News', 9 July 1985.

Report

In presenting Mrs O'Neil for the conferring of her title by the Chancellor Sir Hermann Black, the Vice-Chancellor Professor John Ward referred to her work for the Settlement, the University Women's Group, the Women's Auxiliary of International House, the Friends of the Library and the Chancellor's Committee.

'All these things she has done with grace and good humour', he said, 'never seeking for herself any satisfaction greater than that of knowing that good work has been done where it has been needed.'

From "The University of Sydney News", 9 July 1985