

The annual symposium for the Australian Food Society & Culture Network

PROGRAM

9.45am	Registrations Open; tea & coffee
10.00am	Introduction &amp; welcome John Coveney
10.10am	Presentations THEME: Culturally displaced eating – past to present
	1. Gorgona Anchovies and Bussorah Almonds: Food, Place and Safety in 19th Century Australian Colonies Frieda Moran
	2. Migrant Food Needs in Context: Reconsidering Ideas of Good Nutrition Rachel Ankeny
	3. From Suspect Migrant to Model Australian: Natale Italiano and the Transformation of Perfect Cheese Tania Cammarano
	4. Can sharing meals increase social capital?: Assessing social and health values of shared meals provided at Cultural and Linguistically Diverse support groups Georgia Middleton
11.25am	Post Dining presentation &amp; interactive morning tea Hannah Rohrlach
11.45am	Presentations THEME: Food geographies and crossing Food boundaries
	5. Soul kitchen: Towards a feminist methodological approach for the study of food security. Tilisa Guima
	6. Food Sovereignty, Territory and Place Between Multiculturalism and Republicanism Matteo Bonotti
	8. Mushroom girl and other small political acts of agency Megan Warin
	9. New foods on our plate: plant-based “meat”, “milk” and edible insects in the Australian diet Livia Padihla
12.45	Lunch break (not catered)
1.45pm	Panel &amp; Discussion: What has come out of this symposium? Hosted by John Coveney Where do we want AFSCN to go? Hosted by Teresa Davis
3.45pm	Closing statement

Register here: www.flinders.edu.au/sohs/food-and-place.cfm