Honours

For most subject areas in the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences, Honours is a year-long (48 credit points) program comprising coursework and an independent thesis that is undertaken following the completion of requirements of the enabling (Pass) degree, as set out in the resolutions of your degree. Only optional Advanced Coursework can be enrolled in in the final year of combined Bachelor of Advanced Studies degrees (such as Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Advanced Studies, Bachelor of Economics and Bachelor of Advanced Studies, etc). Students may exit combined Bachelor of Advanced Studies degrees on meeting requirements of the standalone first degree. Honours must be completed in a separate degree, for example Bachelor of Arts (Honours), Bachelor of Economics (Honours) or Bachelor of Visual Arts (Honours) to which eligible students apply via Sydney Student at the end of the semester in which they complete requirements of the enabling degree.

Note that in Social Work and in pre-2022 Education degrees, Honours is embedded as an option in the last two years of standard progression.

Honours in the Bachelor of Visual Arts is 36 credit points. Students must select 12 credit points of additional coursework to meet requirements for the award of Bachelor of Visual Arts (Honours). There is no Honours program for the Visual Arts major.
