

Student Election voting now open

4 October 2022

Dear students,

Please be advised that the electronic ballots for the 2022 University of Sydney Student Elections are now open.

Students who are eligible to vote have received an email invitation to participate from the University's third-party voting software, BigPulse. The email from BigPulse contains information on how to access and complete the ballots.

If you have any questions regarding the electronic ballot or the voting process, please contact the University Governance Office Elections Team.
