

Bachelor of Advanced Studies information

16 February 2024

Dear students,

I'm writing to let you know that the University has become aware of a potential administrative issue regarding our Bachelor of Advanced Studies degrees.

I'd like to reassure Bachelor of Advanced Studies students that your enrolment, Unit of Study selections and timetables are not affected and we're looking forward to welcoming you to classes next week.

We're currently reviewing the Bachelor of Advanced Studies graduation certificates we have been issuing and considering whether they clearly reflect the full learning outcomes our students achieve. We expect this may bring about some changes to the layout and wording of graduation certificates Bachelor of Advanced Studies students receive and we may need to take administrative action to enable this.

More information is available on our website and if you are impacted in any way we'll be in touch.

Students enrolled in other degrees are not affected in any way.

Best wishes for the semester ahead.

Joanne
