

Bondi Junction incident

15 April 2024

Dear students,

Like you, I am shocked and saddened by the senseless violence and loss of life that occurred at Bondi Junction on the weekend. This morning, police confirmed that a University of Sydney student was one of the victims who died in this tragic incident.

On behalf of the University, I extend my sincere condolences to the student's family and friends. We are working closely with the Chinese consulate and the student's family to assist in any way we can. Police and the student's family have asked that we do not release the student's name at this stage.

I urge anyone who needs help to contact support services. You can access free and confidential counselling and wellbeing support 24/7 with Student Wellbeing by visiting the health and wellbeing webpage. 24-hour support is also available from Lifeline via text, online chat, or by calling 13 11 14.

This is a deeply distressing event, but I want to reassure you that this was an isolated incident and police have advised there is no ongoing danger.

Please take time today to check in on each other, this is an upsetting time for our community and I encourage you to look after each other and access the support available.

Kind regards,
Mark

Professor Mark Scott AO
Vice-Chancellor and President

---

Copyright © 2024 The University of Sydney, NSW 2006 Australia
Phone +61 2 9351 2222 ABN 15 211 513 464 CRICOS Number: 00026A

We recognise and pay respect to the Elders and communities – past, present, and emerging – of the lands that the University of Sydney's campuses stand on. For thousands of years they have shared and exchanged knowledges across innumerable generations for the benefit of all. Learn more.

Please add university.communications@sydney.edu.au to your address book or senders safe list to make sure you continue to see our emails in the future.

Disclaimer | Privacy statement | University of Sydney