

Police operation on our Camperdown Campus

2 July 2024

Dear students,

I am shocked and saddened to inform you that a student in our community was attacked on our Camperdown Campus this morning in what police believe is an isolated incident. The student is in hospital and is in a serious but stable condition.

NSW Police have arrested the alleged attacker and have assured us that there is no ongoing threat to the community.

A NSW Police operation is currently underway on our campus and we are assisting police with their investigation. As a precautionary measure, several buildings have been placed on secure mode. Students and staff will need to use their swipe card to access the following locations:

- A02 Social Sciences
- A04 R.D. Watt
- A08 Heydon-Laurence
- A11 Edgeworth David
- A15 Pharmacy and Bank
- A16 Badham
- A20 John Woolley
- A21 Wallace Theatre
- A22 Old Teachers College
- A35 Education
- B01 JD Stewart
- B14 McMaster
- B19 RMC Gunn
- D17 Charles Perkins Centre
- D18 Susan Wakil

The safety and wellbeing of our community is our number one priority and we urge anyone who needs help to contact our support services.

Free and confidential counselling and wellbeing support is available 24/7. To connect with Student Wellbeing, please visit the health and wellbeing webpage to be connected with support and assistance. You can also call (02) 8627 8433. 24-hour support is also available from Lifeline via text, online chat, or by calling 13 11 14.

We will continue working with police as their investigation continues and we will provide more details to our community later today.

Kind regards,
Mark
