Domestic and family violence: what it is and where to go for support

As part of the UN's 16 Days of Activism, Sharon Chung from the University's Safer Communities Office breaks down the facts of domestic violence and how you can find support for yourself or for someone you know in need.

Notices

If you're experiencing genuine financial difficulties requiring funds over the holiday period, you can apply for general bursaries to assist with essential general living expenses.
 Applications for 2020 will close on Tuesday 8 December 2020. Further details, including the eligibility criteria and application process can be found on the Financial Support Services website. Be sure to follow all the steps and include all the required supporting documents, before the closing date, if you want to receive the funds before year end.

Get involved

Ready, study, go!

 Get the most out of your time in this online group study session hosted by your friendly Peer Learning Advisors, every Tuesday from 1 to 3pm. Bring your study notes and let us be your study coach.
