7 Responsibilities

(1) The DCIS is responsible for:

(a) determining priorities for planned maintenance and conservation projects, in consultation with the Heritage Advisory Group;

(b) ensuring appropriate budget provision is made for maintenance and conservation of heritage items;
(c) ensuring the HAMS is updated annually; and
(d) ensuring condition audits of the University’s internal and external building fabric are conducted as required.

(2) Campus Infrastructure and Services is responsible for:
(a) fitting out, refurbishing or adapting for re-use buildings on University land or adjacent to a heritage item;
(b) constructing new buildings on University land;
(c) preparing and maintaining the fabric survey for use in determining priorities and planning maintenance;
(d) preparing and updating the HAMS in accordance with the requirements of the State Agency Heritage Guide; and
(e) preparing annual reports and reports on changes to the Heritage and Conservation Register as required.

(3) The Heritage Advisory Group is responsible for:
(a) advising CIS and the DCIS, for action by CIS, on the conservation, management and planning of works involving heritage items;
(b) acting as a committee of review for:
   (i) building and landscape projects likely to impact on a heritage item;
   (ii) issues relating to a heritage item; or
   (iii) amendments to the Heritage and Conservation Register.
   Note: See clause 9 of this policy and the Terms of Reference for the Heritage Advisory Group in the schedule to this policy.

(4) The UE Financial Performance Committee will determine budgets for maintenance and conservation projects, on advice from the DCIS and the Heritage Advisory Group.

8 Heritage management principles

(1) All heritage items are available for use by faculties and business units to support the University’s object.

   Note: The University’s object is specified in section 6 of the University of Sydney Act 1999 (NSW) (as amended) as follows:

   “the promotion, within the limits of the University's resources, of scholarship, research, free inquiry, the interaction of research and teaching, and academic excellence.”

(2) The continued use of heritage items is the best method to ensure their conservation.

(3) All conservation and maintenance projects involving heritage items must be implemented using experienced and qualified consultants, contractors and tradespersons.

(4) All changes to the buildings and grounds must be documented by the use of archival photography and preserved in the University Archives.
The management of the University's heritage will be guided by the following documents:

(a) the State Agency Heritage Guide;
(b) the Heritage and Conservation Register;
(c) the HAMS;
(d) the Heritage Fabric Survey; and
(e) all relevant conservation management plans.

9 Heritage Advisory Group

(1) A management committee, known as the Heritage Advisory Group, is established with terms of reference as set out in the schedule to this policy.

(2) The Provost will appoint members to the Heritage Advisory Group, which will consist of:

(a) 2 members from the Provost's portfolio;
(b) 1 member from the Student Support Services unit;
(c) 1 member from the Sydney School of Architecture, Design and Planning;
(d) 1 member from Media and Communications;
(e) 3 members from outside the University, who are prominent architects;

(h) 1 member from the NSW Heritage Office;
(i) 1 member from the Anderson Stuart Heritage Committee; and
(j) the University’s Heritage Architect.

(3) The Heritage Advisory Group will provide a written report to each of the Vice Chancellor, the DCIS and the UE at least once per year.

(a) The report will provide details of:

(i) compliance with the Heritage Act;
(ii) changes to the Heritage and Conservation Register;
(iii) progress of conservation works identified in the HAMS and the University’s capital works and maintenance programs; and
(iv) a current estimate of the scope and likely cost of required maintenance.

10 Heritage Asset Management Strategy and conservation management plans

(1) CIS will establish and maintain the HAMS as a formal, written plan for the conservation of the University’s heritage and update it at least annually.
(2) The HAMS:
   (a) will have the status of procedures under the University of Sydney (Policies Development and Review) Rule 2011; and
   (b) will be published through the Policy Register.

(3) CIS will prepare a conservation management plan for each item listed in the Heritage and Conservation Register, and update each such plan at least once every 10 years.

11 Heritage and Conservation Register

(1) CIS will prepare and maintain a list of the University’s heritage items, as required by Section 170 of the Heritage Act.

(2) Items may only be added to or removed from the Heritage and Conservation Register with approval from the DCIS on advice from Heritage Advisory Group.

(3) The DCIS will ensure that:
   (a) the Heritage and Conservation Register is updated at least annually; and
   (b) any changes are notified to the NSW Heritage Office as required by the Heritage Act.

12 Maintenance and works

(1) The DCIS must arrange the conduct of a condition audit of the building fabric, internal and external, of the University’s heritage items at least every 10 years.

(2) The DCIS must ensure that an appropriate portion of the capital and maintenance budget is allocated to heritage conservation, and is sufficient to ensure timely maintenance of building fabric in accordance with the requirements of the HAMS and the fabric survey.

(3) In addition to the requirements of the Building Projects Approval and Management Policy 2014, no significant works may be undertaken on or adjacent to heritage items without consultation with the Heritage Advisory Committee.

13 Reports

(1) CIS will prepare appropriate material for inclusion in the University’s annual report which identifies changes to the Heritage and Conservation Register and conservation works undertaken or planned.

(2) The DCIS will provide an annual report to NSW Office of Environment and Heritage as required by section 170 of the Heritage Act.

(3) The DCIS will report to the Heritage Advisory Committee on the outcome of each condition audit conducted under clause 12 of this policy.
HERITAGE ADVISORY GROUP TERMS OF REFERENCE

The Heritage Advisory Group will:

- provide a means of consultation with the relevant stakeholders and networks on all matters relating to the University’s built environment, heritage buildings, moveable heritage items, collections and intangible items, including guidelines for internal and external planners, consultants, contractors, asset managers and project managers;

- co-ordinate the conduct of annual review of the University built environment; for students, staff and visitors;

- advise the Director, Campus Infrastructure and Services on appropriate measures to achieve appropriate standard of facilities for students and staff; and

- advise the Director, Campus Infrastructure and Services on other relevant matters on request.
