Career development leave – general staff

This document applies to general staff:

• covered by The University of Sydney Enterprise Agreement 2013-2017 and other agreements that provide for Career Development Leave; and
• whose manager grants approval to take Career Development Leave.

It does not apply to academic staff, casual staff or staff on probation.

In this document, refer to University of Sydney (Delegations of Authority Administrative Functions) Rule 2016 for the definition of:

• School
• Head - refers to HOS/HOA

‘Organisational unit’ is an administrative and equivalent to a budget unit for which a HOA has responsibility.

Policy

A General staff member is entitled to convert up to five days of his or her sick leave entitlement each year to Career Development Leave.

Career Development Leave may be taken to enable staff to develop their career in a manner that is not necessarily related to their current duties or employment.

Career Development Leave is in addition to the University’s existing Study Time policy and other staff development opportunities.

Procedures

A Applications

Applications are submitted through myHRonline to the supervisor for approval. The supervisor may escalate approval to the Head where required. The application is to include:

• a description of the career development program/activity
• details of where the career development will be undertaken
• a statement on how the leave may be beneficial to the staff member’s career development
• any supplementary/supporting documentation.

B Approval

Normally the supervisor or Head will either approve or not approve the application within five working days of receiving the application.

Where the application is not approved, the supervisor or Head will discuss his/her decision with the applicant and if requested provide reasons in writing.
C Statistical Reporting
The Director, Change and Development, will include in their Annual Report, statistics regarding the use of the Career Development Leave provision.

D Reporting
Where it is agreed between the supervisor or Head and the staff member, the staff member may make a report/briefing of the career development opportunity to the supervisor or Head and other staff members in the School/Organisational unit.
