PART 1 - PRELIMINARY

1.1 Name of Rule

This is the University of Sydney (Governance of Faculties and University Schools) Rule 2016.
1.2 Commencement

This Rule commences on 1 January 2017.

1.3 Application

This Rule applies to all faculties and University schools.

1.4 Statement of intent

(1) This Rule stipulates the requirements for operational governance within faculties and University schools.

(2) This Rule binds:

(a) Executive Deans, Deans, Heads of School, Heads of Clinical School, and Head of School and Deans (University schools);

(b) Deputy Executive Deans, Deputy Deans, Deputy Head of School and Deputy Deans (University schools), and Associate Deans; and

(c) all members of faculty, school and University school committees, including faculty boards, University school boards, executive committees, leadership groups, sub-committees, working parties and advisory committees.

1.5 Interpretation

(1) In this Rule:

academic affairs means the teaching and research activities of a faculty or University school, including award courses, honours, higher degrees by research, quality improvement and educational integrity.

academic staff member means a person who:

• is employed by the University as a member of its academic staff, other than as a casual member; or

• is an affiliate who holds an approved leadership position and who is not a member of the University’s professional staff.

administrative, strategic and operational affairs means financial, human resources, fundraising, marketing, communications and other activities relating to the administration and operation of a faculty or University school.
affiliate means a person appointed or engaged by the University to perform duties or functions on its behalf, including but not limited to:

- an honorary title holder engaged under the Honorary Titles Policy 2013;
- a consultant or contractor to the University; and
- an office holder in a University entity, a member of any University committee, board or foundation.

An affiliate is not an employee on the University.

allocated position means a position allocated to be filled by a member of a particular group, as provided in sections 3.4, 3.7(3), 3.7(5), 4.4(2), 6.4 and 6.7(2).

approved leadership position means a position designated as such by the Provost.

award course means a course approved by the Academic Board and endorsed by the Senate on the recommendation of the Academic Board, that leads to the conferral of a degree or the award of a diploma or certificate, including a Sydney Professional Certificate.

clinical school means a clinical school within the University of Sydney Medical School in the Faculty of Medicine and Health, established consistently with Part 5 of this Rule.

core Associate Dean means an Associate Dean whose area of accountability corresponds to a committee of the University Executive. At the date of this Rule these are:

- Associate Dean (Research)
- Associate Dean (Research Education)
- Associate Dean (Education)
- Associate Dean (Indigenous Strategy and Services)
- Associate Dean (Student Life)

day means calendar day.

Dean means any Dean of a faculty.

Deputy Dean means the Deputy Dean of a faculty.

Deputy Executive Dean means a Deputy Executive Dean of the Faculty of Medicine and Health.

discipline means an intellectual community within a faculty, responsible for curriculum development and research endeavour within an internationally recognised field of inquiry. In this Rule, this term does not refer to sub-units within schools, even if named or described as disciplines.
Executive Committee means an executive committee established by an Executive Dean, a Dean or a Head of School and Dean (University school) in accordance with section 3.11 or 6.11 of this Rule, to deal with administrative, strategic and operational matters.

Executive Dean means any Executive Dean of a faculty

Executive Dean’s Committee means an executive committee established by an Executive Dean in accordance with section 3.11 of this Rule, to deal with administrative, strategic and operational matters.

faculty means a faculty constituted in accordance with this Rule.

faculty board means a board established in accordance with section 3.7 of this Rule, to address academic matters.

Head of Clinical School means the head of a clinical school within the Sydney Medical School in the Faculty of Medicine and Health.

Head of School means the head of a school within a faculty, including a Head of School and Dean.

Head of School and Dean means any Head of School and Dean of a University school.

Leadership Group means a group established by an Executive Dean, Dean, or Head of School and Dean (University school), in accordance with section 3.14 or 6.14 of this Rule.

professional staff member means a person who has been employed by the University as a member of its professional staff, and who is not a member of the University’s academic staff.

program has the meaning given to it in the Coursework Policy 2014, which at the date of this Rule is:

means a combination of units of study that develops expertise in a multi-disciplinary domain or a professional or specialist field and includes at least one recognised major.

Note: See also Learning and Teaching Policy 2015.

school means a school within a faculty established and constituted in accordance with this Rule.

School Manager means a person formally appointed to that position in a school within a faculty.

School General Manager means a person formally appointed to that position in a University school.

significant component of an award course means any of a stream, program, major, minor, degree core or capstone experience.

Note: See the Learning and Teaching Policy 2015.
student means a person who is currently admitted to candidature in an award course of the University.

temporary staff member means an academic staff member or a professional staff member who has been employed by the University in a fixed term or contract position, but not a casual position.

University Executive means the committee of that name, which comprises members of the University’s senior leadership team.

University school means a University school that is not within a faculty and is constituted in accordance with Part 6 of this Rule.

University school board means a board established in accordance with section 6.7 of this Rule, to address academic matters.

(2) A heading to a Part or Schedule is a provision of this Rule. Other headings are not provisions of this Rule, but the number of a section or subsection is a provision of this Rule even if it is in a heading.

(3) A note, marginal note, footnote or endnote is not a provision of this Rule.

(4) A reference to a rule (other than this Rule) or policy is a reference to the rule or policy as amended or replaced by the University from time to time.

PART 2 - ESTABLISHMENT OF FACULTIES AND UNIVERSITY SCHOOLS

2.1 Application

This Part applies to all:

(a) faculties; and

(b) University schools.

2.2 Establishment of faculties

(1) There will be the following faculties, however named:

(b) the Faculty of Business;

(c) the Faculty of Engineering;

(d) the Faculty of Medicine and Health; and

(e) the Faculty of Science.
2.3 Establishment of University schools

There will be the following University schools, however named:

(a) The University of Sydney School of Architecture, Design and Planning;
(b) The Sydney Conservatorium of Music; and
(c) The University of Sydney Law School.

PART 3 - FACULTIES

3.1 Application

This Part applies to:

(a) the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences;
(b) the Faculty of Business;
(c) the Faculty of Engineering;
(d) the Faculty of Medicine and Health; and
(e) the Faculty of Science.

3.2 Faculty leadership

(1) The Faculty of Medicine and Health will have:
   (a) an Executive Dean; and
   (b) up to three Deputy Executive Deans.

(2) Each other faculty will have:
   (a) a Dean; and
   (b) up to two Deputy Deans.

(3) Every faculty will have:
   (a) a number of core Associate Deans, each aligned with one of the portfolio committees of the University Executive and with responsibilities outlined in the terms of reference for that committee; and
   (b) a Faculty General Manager.

   Note: See section 1.5 for definition of core Associate Dean.

(4) Each faculty may have one or more non-core Associate Deans, as approved by the Provost on the recommendation of the Executive Dean or Dean.

(5) Faculties may create faculty leadership positions other than those prescribed in subsections 3.2(1) to (4), with the approval of the Provost.
3.3 Faculty governance

(1) The academic affairs of each faculty will be governed by:
   (a) the faculty;
   (b) the faculty board; and
   (c) relevant faculty committees established under Part 3A.

(2) The administrative, strategic and operational affairs of each faculty will be governed by:
   (a) the Executive Dean’s or Dean’s Executive Committee;
   (b) the Leadership Group; and
   (c) relevant faculty committees established under Part 3A.

3.4 Membership of faculties

(1) Each faculty will comprise:
   (a) all full time and part time permanent and temporary members of the academic and professional staff of the faculty; and
   (b) at least 10 elected student members.

(2) The faculty board will allocate a specified number of elected student positions for each of the following groups
   (a) undergraduate students;
   (b) postgraduate coursework students; and
   (c) higher degree by research students.

Note: The allocation of the faculty membership entitlement is published on the University website.

3.5 Responsibilities and functions of faculties

(1) The faculty will receive and consider reports on academic matters from the faculty board at least once per semester.

(2) The faculty may make such recommendations to the faculty board as it thinks fit, about the affairs and concerns of the faculty.

3.6 Faculty meetings

(1) The Executive Dean or Dean, or their nominee, will convene and chair a meeting of the faculty at least once per semester.

(2) The Executive Dean or Dean, or their nominee, will convene and chair such other meetings of the faculty as they consider necessary or as required by the:
   (a) Vice-Chancellor;
   (b) Provost; or
   (c) faculty board.
(3) The Executive Dean or Dean or their nominee will, at least two weeks before the date fixed for the holding of a faculty meeting, give notice to members specifying the place, date and time of the meeting, and the nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting.

(a) A full agenda should be circulated at least one week before the meeting.

(4) The lesser of any 40 members of the faculty, or one eighth of the membership (calculated to the nearest whole number), will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at a faculty meeting.

(5) No business may be transacted at a meeting of the faculty unless a quorum is present.

(6) Affiliates may attend faculty meetings, but only those holding approved leadership positions may vote.

(7) A recommendation put to the vote will be decided on a show of hands, unless the Chair directs that a poll be held.

(8) Every member will have one vote on a show of hands and on a poll.

(9) A recommendation will be carried if a majority of the votes cast on the recommendation are in favour of it.

(10) If the number of votes is equal, the Chair will have the casting vote.

(11) A meeting of the faculty may be held at two or more venues simultaneously using any technology that gives members a reasonable opportunity to participate.

3.7 Membership of faculty boards

(1) Each faculty board will comprise:

(a) the ex-officio members:

(i) the Executive Dean or Dean, or their nominee, who will perform the role of Chair;

(ii) the Deputy Executive Deans or Deputy Deans;

(iii) the Associate Deans;

(iv) the Heads of School (where applicable);

(v) the Heads of Disciplines (where applicable);

(vi) the Faculty General Manager;

(vii) subject to the approval of the Executive Dean or Dean, all School Managers;

(viii) the Provost or their nominee;

(b) at least 10 elected academic staff members;

(c) four elected professional staff members; and

(d) at least four and no more than ten elected student members.

(2) The Executive Dean or Dean may decide whether to have all or no School Managers as ex officio members of the faculty board. It is not permitted to have only some School Managers serve in this capacity.
(3) The faculty board will allocate a specified number of elected student positions for each of the following groups:

   (a) undergraduate students;
   (b) postgraduate coursework students; and
   (c) higher degree by research students.

Note: The allocation of the faculty board membership entitlement is published on the University website.

3.8 Responsibilities and functions of the faculty board

(1) Subject to the requirements of applicable University rules, policies and procedures, the faculty board will oversee the academic affairs of the faculty.

(2) A reference in rules, policies or procedures to a decision of a faculty is a reference to a decision of the faculty board, unless otherwise specified.

(3) The faculty board will exercise its responsibilities and functions subject to:

   (a) the authority of the Senate and the Academic Board; and
   (b) the Act, the By-law, and relevant rules, policies and procedures.

(4) The faculty board will:

   (a) make recommendations to the Academic Board on proposals for new award courses;
   (b) make recommendations to the Academic Board on revisions to award courses;
   (c) make resolutions for the coursework award courses offered by the faculty including, as appropriate:

      (i) admission;
      (ii) enrolment restrictions;
      (iii) time limits;
      (iv) suspension, discontinuation and lapse of candidature;
      (v) recognition of prior learning;
      (vi) attendance;
      (vii) cross-institutional study;
      (viii) international exchange;
      (ix) assessment;
      (x) late submission of assessments;
      (xi) satisfactory progress;
      (xii) admission to honours; and
      (xiii) the award of honours and the levels at which honours is awarded;
(d) make resolutions for each degree, diploma and certificate offered by the faculty including, as appropriate:
   (i) admission;
   (ii) attendance;
   (iii) majors;
   (iv) recognition of prior learning;
   (v) progression;
   (vi) requirements for the award;
   (vii) requirements for the award of honours;
   (viii) award of the degree; and
   (ix) award of honours;

(e) monitor and maintain quality, standards and excellence in education and research;

(f) report to the faculty at least once per semester;

(g) consider and report to the faculty on recommendations made by the faculty;

(h) report to the Academic Board at least once per year on quality and educational integrity standards; and

(i) consider and report on all matters referred to it by the Senate, the Vice-Chancellor or the Academic Board.

(5) The faculty board may, of its own motion, report to the Academic Board on all matters relating to research, studies, lectures, examinations, degrees, diplomas and certificates offered by the faculty.

(6) The faculty board may establish sub-committees, working parties and advisory committees to:
   (a) facilitate the conduct of its business; and
   (b) make recommendations, on matters other than those within the remit of the faculty committees established by Part 3A of this Rule, to the faculty board for decision.

(7) A sub-committee working party or advisory committee established in accordance with subsection 3.8(6) must not make decisions on behalf of the faculty board.

3.9 Faculty board meetings

(1) The Executive Dean or Dean, or their nominee, will convene and chair a meeting of the faculty board at least twice a year.

(2) The Executive Dean or Dean, or their nominee, will convene and chair such other faculty board meetings as they consider necessary or as required by the:
   (a) Vice-Chancellor;
   (b) Provost; or
   (c) faculty.
(3) The Executive Dean or Dean or their nominee will, at least two weeks before the date fixed for the holding of a faculty board meeting, give a notice to members specifying the place, date and time of the meeting, and the nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting.

(a) A full agenda should be circulated at least one week before the meeting.

(4) Fifty per cent of members will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at a faculty board meeting.

(5) Where a faculty or University school (“the delivering faculty or University school”) delivers a program on behalf of another faculty or University school (“the owning faculty or University school”), the delivering faculty or University school may nominate up to five representatives who may:

(a) attend and speak at relevant board meetings of the owning faculty or University school; and

(b) vote at such meetings on matters relating to the relevant program.

(6) No business may be transacted at a faculty board meeting unless a quorum is present.

(7) A faculty board meeting may be held at two or more venues simultaneously using any technology that gives members a reasonable opportunity to participate.

(8) A resolution or recommendation put to the vote will be decided on a show of hands, unless the Chair directs that a poll be held.

(9) Every member will have one vote on a show of hands and on a poll.

(10) A resolution will be carried if a majority of the votes cast on the resolution or recommendation are in favour of it.

(11) If the number of votes is equal, the Chair will have the casting vote.

(12) The faculty board may make decisions by circulation:

(a) about recommendations from the faculty Education Committee relating to:

(i) approval of units of study;

(ii) curriculum components; or

(iii) award courses;

Note: See subsection 3A.5(3).

or

(b) in exceptional circumstances (as determined by the Chair, the Vice-Chancellor or the Provost).

(13) The Chair may determine the appropriate processes for decision by circulation, provided that:

(a) any item of business for decision by circulation must be circulated to all members of the faculty board; and

(b) no resolution or recommendation may be approved by circulation unless the majority of the required quorum for the transaction of business is in favour of it.
3.10 Membership of the Executive Dean’s or Dean’s Executive Committee

The Executive Dean or Dean will appoint members to their Committee or Executive Committee.

3.11 Responsibilities and functions of the Executive Dean’s or Dean’s Executive Committee

The Executive Dean’s or Dean’s Executive Committee will advise the Executive Dean or Dean on the administrative, strategic and operational affairs of the faculty.

3.12 Meetings of the Executive Dean's or Dean's Executive Committee

The Executive Dean or Dean, or their nominee, will convene and chair meetings of their Committee or Executive Committee as required.

3.13 Membership of the Leadership Group

(1) The Executive Dean or Dean will appoint members to the Leadership Group, in consultation with the Provost.

(2) The Leadership Group should include:

(a) Deputy Executive Deans or Deputy Deans;
(b) Associate Deans;
(c) Heads of School (where applicable);
(d) Heads of Discipline (where applicable);
(e) heads of central units, as appropriate; and
(f) the Faculty General Manager.

3.14 Responsibilities and functions of the Leadership Group

The Leadership Group will collaborate and provide strategic advice to the Executive Dean’s or Dean’s Executive Committee.

3.15 Meetings of the Leadership Group

The Executive Dean or Dean, or their nominee, will convene and chair meetings of the Leadership Group as required.
PART 3A – FACULTY COMMITTEES

3A.1 Faculty committee structure

(1) Each faculty must have the following core committees:
   (a) Education Committee;
   (b) Indigenous Strategy and Services Committee;
   (c) Research Committee;
   (d) Research Education Committee; and
   (e) Work Health and Safety Committee.

(2) The University Executive will determine the responsibilities of each core committee, which will include:
   (a) overseeing, and supporting the implementation of, University and faculty strategies and initiatives relevant to its remit;
   (b) overseeing, and supporting the implementation of, relevant University Executive initiatives and providing feedback to the relevant University Executive committee;
   (c) supporting effective decision making within the faculty and its decision-making bodies;
   (d) reporting as required to faculty decision-making bodies and to the University Executive, Academic Board and their relevant committees; and
   (e) facilitating:
      (i) communication and consultation with relevant Associate Deans and Deputy Vice-Chancellors;
      (ii) inter-faculty collaboration;
      (iii) quality control in the area of their remit; and
      (iv) risk mitigation in the area of their remit.

(3) Each faculty may have up to three further optional committees.

(4) Optional committees will be established by the Executive Dean or Dean after consultation with their Executive Committee.
   (a) The Executive Dean or Dean will determine the terms of reference of optional committees, including:
      (i) their size; and
      (ii) the nature of any student representation.
   (b) Optional committees should not be larger than is reasonably required for the efficient and effective conduct of their business with appropriate expertise.
   (c) The Executive Dean or Dean will determine the Chairs of optional committees.
(d) The Executive Dean or Dean will review the optional committees annually, in consultation with their Executive Committee, and determine:

(i) whether the committee should continue or be disbanded; and

(ii) if the committee is to continue, whether its terms of reference should be amended.

(e) An optional committee should be disbanded if, in the view of the Executive Dean or Dean after consultation with their Executive Committee, it no longer meets the needs of the faculty.

(5) A core or optional committee may establish and determine the terms of reference for:

(a) sub-committees, to facilitate the conduct of the committee’s business; and

(b) working parties, for specific short-term projects.

(6) Sub-committees or working parties must report through the committee which established them, and must not make decisions on behalf of that committee.

(7) All committees, core and optional, will report to:

(a) the faculty board, for academic matters; and

(b) the Executive Dean’s or Dean’s Executive Committee, for administrative, strategic or operational matters.

3A.2 Authority of committees

(1) Except for the Education Committee as provided in subsection 3A.5(3), no faculty committee may make decisions or recommendations on behalf of the faculty board or the Executive Dean’s or Dean’s Executive Committee.

(2) The Education Committee will be responsible for deciding on recommendations on behalf of the faculty board as provided in subsections 3A.5(3) and 3A.5(5).

3A.3 Committee membership

(1) The Executive Dean or Dean, after consultation with the Chair of the committee, will appoint members of faculty committees other than ex officio members, for renewable terms of one year.

(a) Committee members must be appointed on the basis of their relevant expertise, and do not need to be members of the faculty board, Executive Dean’s or Deans Executive Group or the faculty Leadership Group.

(b) In appointing members, the Executive Dean or Dean must also consider the need for:

(i) appropriate representation of the faculty’s academic disciplines; and

(ii) equitable representation of the faculty’s diversity.

(c) Subject to subsection 3A.3(4), members are eligible for reappointment.
(2) The Executive Dean or Dean must review the membership of each committee, core and optional, annually in consultation with its Chair.

   (a) In doing so, the Executive Dean or Dean must satisfy themselves that each committee:

      (i) has current and relevant expertise; and

      (ii) appropriately reflects the faculty’s diversity and disciplines.

(3) The Executive Dean or Dean, in consultation with their Executive Committee, will decide whether, and if so what, limits will apply to the length of time or the number of times committee members (other than ex officio members) may serve on a particular committee.

(5) The University school board may, of its own motion, report to the Academic Board on all matters relating to research, studies, lectures, examinations, degrees, diplomas and certificates offered by the University school.

(6) The University school board may establish sub-committees, working parties and advisory committees to:

(a) facilitate the conduct of its business; and

(b) make recommendations, on matters other than those within the remit of the University school committees established under Part 6A of this Rule, to the University school board for decision.

(7) A sub-committee, working party or advisory committee established in accordance with subsection 6.8(6) must not make decisions on behalf of the University school board.

6.9 University school board meetings

(1) The Head of School and Dean, or their nominee, will convene and chair a meeting of the University school board at least twice a year.

(2) The Head of School and Dean, or their nominee, will convene and chair such other meetings of the University school board as they consider necessary or as required by the:

(a) Vice-Chancellor; or

(b) Provost.

(3) The Head of School and Dean or their nominee will, at least two weeks before the date fixed for the holding of a University school board meeting, give a notice to members specifying the place, date and time of the meeting, and the nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting.

(a) A full agenda should be circulated at least one week before the meeting.

(4) The lesser of any 20 members of the University school board, or one eighth of the membership (calculated to the nearest whole number) will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at a University school board meeting.
Where a faculty or University school (“the delivering faculty or University school”) delivers a program on behalf of another faculty or University school (“the owning faculty or University school”), the delivering faculty or University school may nominate up to five representatives who may:

(a) attend and speak at relevant board meetings of the owning faculty or University school; and

(b) vote at such meetings on matters relating to the relevant program.

No business may be transacted at a meeting of a University school board unless a quorum is present.

A meeting of the University school board may be held at two or more venues simultaneously using any technology that gives members a reasonable opportunity to participate.

A resolution or recommendation put to the vote will be decided on a show of hands, unless the Chair directs that a poll be held.

Every member will have one vote on a show of hands and on a poll.

A resolution will be carried if a majority of the votes cast on the resolution or recommendation are in favour of it.

If the number of votes is equal, the Chair will have the casting vote.

The University school board may make decisions by circulation:

(a) about recommendations from the University school Education Committee relating to:

(i) approval of units of study;

(ii) curriculum components;

(iii) award courses;

Note: See subsection 6A.5(3).

or

(b) in exceptional circumstances (as determined by the Chair, the Vice-Chancellor or the Provost).

The Chair may determine the appropriate processes for decision by circulation, provided that:

(a) any item of business for decision by circulation must be circulated to all members of the University school board; and

(b) no resolution or recommendation may be approved by circulation unless the majority of the required quorum for the transaction of business is in favour of it.
6.10 Membership of the Head of School and Dean’s Executive Committee

The Head of School and Dean will appoint members to the Executive Committee.

6.11 Responsibilities and functions of the Head of School and Dean’s Executive Committee

The Head of School and Dean’s Executive Committee will advise the Head of School and Dean on the administrative, strategic and operational affairs of the University school.

6.12 Meetings of the Head of School and Dean’s Executive Committee

The Head of School and Dean or their nominee will convene and chair meetings of the Executive Committee as required.

6.13 Membership of the Leadership Group

(1) The Head of School and Dean will appoint members to the Leadership Group, in consultation with the Provost.

(2) The Leadership Group should include:
   (a) the Deputy Head of School and Deputy Deans;
   (b) Associate Deans;
   (c) heads of central units, as appropriate; and
   (d) the School General Manager.

6.14 Responsibilities and functions of the Leadership Group

The leadership group will collaborate and provide strategic advice to the Head of School and Dean’s Executive Committee.

6.15 Meetings of the Leadership Group

The Head of School and Dean or their nominee will convene and chair meetings of the Leadership Group as required.
6A.1 University school committee structure

(1) Each University school must have at least the following core committees:
   (a) Education Committee;
   (b) Indigenous Strategy and Services Committee;
   (c) Research Committee;
   (d) Research Education Committee; and
   (e) Work Health and Safety Committee.

(2) The University Executive will determine the responsibilities of each core committee, which will include:
   (a) overseeing, and supporting the implementation of, University and University school strategies and initiatives relevant to its remit;
   (b) overseeing, and supporting the implementation of, relevant University Executive initiatives, and providing feedback to the relevant University Executive committee;
   (c) supporting effective decision making within the University school and its decision-making bodies;
   (d) reporting as required to University school decision-making bodies and the University Executive, Academic Board and their relevant committees; and
   (e) facilitating:
      (i) communication and consultation with relevant Associate Deans and Deputy Vice-Chancellors;
      (ii) inter-faculty collaboration;
      (iii) quality control in the area of their remit; and
      (iv) risk mitigation in the area of their remit.

(3) Each University school may have up to three further optional committees.

(4) Optional committees will be established by the Head of School and Dean after consultation with their Executive Committee.
   (a) The Head of School and Dean will determine the terms of reference of optional committees, including:
      (i) their size; and
      (ii) the nature of any student representation.
   (b) Optional committees should not be larger than is reasonably required for the efficient and effective conduct of their business with appropriate expertise.
   (c) The Head of School and Dean will determine the Chairs of optional committees.
(d) The Head of School and Dean will review the optional committees annually, in consultation with their Executive Committee, and determine:

(i) whether the committee should continue or be disbanded; and

(ii) if the committee is to continue, whether its terms of reference should be amended.

(e) An optional committee should be disbanded if, in the view of the Head of School and Dean after consultation with their Executive Committee, it no longer meets the needs of the University school.

(5) A core or optional committee may establish and determine the terms of reference for:

(a) sub-committees to facilitate the conduct of the committee’s business; and

(b) working parties, for specific short-term projects.

(6) Sub-committees or working parties must report through the committee which established them, and must not make decisions on behalf of that committee.

(7) All committees, core and optional, will report to:

(a) the University school board, for academic matters; and

(b) the Head of School and Dean’s Executive Committee, for administrative, strategic or operational matters.

6A.2 Authority of committees

(1) Except for the Education Committee as provided in subsection 6A.5(3), no University school committee may make decisions or recommendations on behalf of the University school board or the Head of School and Dean’s Executive Committee.

(2) The Education Committee will be responsible for deciding on recommendations on behalf of the University school board as provided in subsections 6A.5(3) and 6A.5(5).

6A.3 Committee membership

(1) The Head of School and Dean, after consultation with the Chair of the committee, will appoint members of faculty committees other than ex officio members, for renewable terms of one year.

(a) Committee members must be appointed on the basis of their relevant expertise, and do not need to be members of the University school board, Head of School and Dean’s Executive Group or the University school Leadership Group.

(b) In appointing members, the Head of School and Dean must also consider the need for:

(i) appropriate representation of the University school’s academic disciplines; and

(ii) equitable representation of the University school’s diversity.

(c) Subject to subsection 6A.3(4), members are eligible for re-appointment.
(2) The Head of School and Dean must review the membership of each committee annually, in consultation with its Chair.

(a) In doing so, the Head of School and Dean must satisfy themselves that each committee:
   (i) has current and relevant expertise; and
   (ii) appropriately reflects the University school's diversity and disciplines.

(3) The Head of School and Dean, in consultation with their Executive Committee, will decide whether, and if so what, limits will apply to the length of time or the number of times committee members (other than an ex officio members) may serve on a particular committee.

6A.4 Committee meetings

(1) Chairs of core University school committees:
   (a) must convene meetings of their committee at least quarterly;
   (b) must convene meetings of their committee if directed to do so by:
      (i) the Head of School and Dean;
      (ii) the Head of School and Dean’s Executive Committee; or
      (iii) the University school board; and
   (c) may convene such other meetings as necessary for the efficient conduct of the committee’s business.

(2) Chairs of optional University school committees:
   (a) must convene meetings of their committee as required by its terms of reference;
   (b) must convene meetings of their committee if directed to do so by:
      (i) the Head of School and Dean;
      (ii) the Head of School and Dean’s Executive Committee; or
      (iii) the University school board; and
   (c) may convene such other meetings as necessary for the efficient conduct of the committee’s business.

(3) If the Chair of any committee is not present for a meeting, those present will elect an individual from among themselves to act as Chair for that meeting.

(4) Fifty percent of members will constitute a quorum for any committee meeting.

(5) The Head of School and Dean, in consultation with their Executive Committee, will decide for each committee whether the committee’s Chair will have a casting vote when votes for and against a proposition are equal.

(6) Committee meetings may be held at two or more venues simultaneously, using any technology that gives members a reasonable opportunity to participate.
(7) Except for an Education Committee deciding to make a recommendation to which subsection 6A.5(5)(b) applies, a committee may conduct business by circulation:

(a) in exceptional circumstances; and
(b) with the approval of the Head of School and Dean, given on each such occasion.

(8) Where committee business is conducted by circulation, the process will be determined by the Chair in consultation with the Head of School and Dean, provided that:

(a) any item of business to be decided by circulation must be provided to every committee member; and

(b) a decision on an item of business made by circulation must be supported by a majority of the required quorum for a meeting of that committee.

   (i) alignment of policies, procedures and local provisions;
   (ii) consistency of practice; and
   (iii) high quality outcomes in the education of students and the development of teachers;

and

(f) any other matters assigned to it by its terms of reference.
(3) The Education Committee will be responsible for deciding on recommendations to be made on behalf of the University school board in relation to approval of units of study, curriculum components and award courses. This includes:

(a) the addition, variation and deletion of:
   (i) units of study in undergraduate or postgraduate coursework award courses;
   (ii) curriculum components; and
   (iii) award courses delivered by the University school;

and

(b) the addition and deletion of:
   (i) units of study; and
   (ii) curriculum components within the award courses for which the University school is responsible, but which are delivered by another faculty or University school.

(4) Where a faculty or University school ("the delivering faculty or University school") delivers units of study as part of an award course administered by another faculty or University school ("the owning faculty or University school"), the delivering faculty or University school may nominate up to two representatives, who may:

(a) attend and speak at relevant meetings of the owning faculty or University school's Education Committee; and

(b) vote at such meetings on matters relating to the relevant units of study.

(5) Recommendations made under subsection 6A.5(3):

(a) must be:
   (i) reported to all members of the University school board as soon as practicable after they are made;
   (ii) endorsed by the University school board before being forwarded to the Academic Board or any committee of the Academic Board; and
   (iii) once endorsed, forwarded to the Academic Board or relevant committee as soon as possible; and

(b) may be decided at a meeting or by circulation.

(f) any other matters assigned to it by its terms of reference.
PART 7 – RESPONSIBILITIES AND FUNCTIONS

7.1 Introduction

(1) This part sets out the specific responsibilities and functions of academic leaders.

(2) All academic leaders must exercise these responsibilities and functions with particular attention to:

(a) responsibilities relating to the safety and wellbeing of people in their academic units, beyond management of the work health and safety framework;

(b) acting as exemplars of University culture; and

(c) responsibilities relating to securing compliance with the University’s statutory and other legal obligations, as far as these matters may be under their control.

7.2 Responsibilities and functions of the Executive Dean

(1) The Executive Dean may, with the approval of the Provost, establish disciplines or departments to operate within the faculty.

(2) The Executive Dean will be responsible for strategic leadership and planning, including:

(a) planning, setting and communicating the vision of the faculty;

(b) leading and demonstrating the values of the faculty, particularly in relation to culture and people, and enabling the desired culture;

(c) with input from the Leadership Group, setting, communicating and achieving the overarching faculty strategic plans and goals, especially in a health and community environment;

(d) overseeing the development and implementation of school strategies to align with the faculty and University strategies and, as appropriate, health partners’ strategies;

(e) leading the Leadership Group;

(f) participating in whole-of-University decision-making, and having input into the University strategic plan and governance, and communicating these to faculty staff;

(g) implementing the agreed faculty governance framework;

(h) managing key stakeholders and communications to relevant University entities and within the broader health sector, particularly the Local Health Districts, other health and community partners and government; and

(i) monitoring and maintaining quality, standards and excellence in education and research in clinical practice.
(3) The Executive Dean will be responsible for academic leadership including:

(a) aligning strategic curriculum design with the faculty mission and distinctiveness;
(b) recognising and supporting the essential relationships between the University and its external health partners in the delivery of education programs, research and clinical practice;
(c) pursuing and managing strategically aligned funding and grants opportunities;
(d) developing and promoting a quality research strategy that attracts and retains excellence in researchers and research students, and which supports excellence in health and clinical practice; and
(e) overseeing the faculty’s research profile, including reporting requirements.

(4) The Executive Dean will be responsible for financial management, including:

(a) overseeing and having final responsibility for proposing (subject to review by the University Budget Review Team), and controlling budget expenditure;
(b) leading development of the financial strategy and framework for the faculty;
(c) with the Leadership Group, being accountable for the efficient operations of schools, clinical schools and internal centres and institutes; and
(d) with the relevant Deputy Executive Deans, ensuring financial collaboration with external health partners as appropriate.

(5) The Executive Dean will be responsible for operational management, including:

(a) being accountable for all aspects of faculty operations;
(b) providing support to Heads of School and Heads of Clinical School to ensure that they have appropriate resources and established processes to implement efficient operations, particularly in the external environment that interfaces with the faculty’s health and community partners and other health providers;
(c) as appropriate, ensuring coherence and consistency of operational frameworks:
   (i) within the faculty, including between the faculty and its schools and clinical schools;
   (ii) between the faculty and other faculties and University schools; and
   (iii) where possible, with the faculty’s health and community partners and other external health providers;
(d) overseeing school and clinical school resource management, including ensuring consistency of systems, processes and procedures.

(6) The Executive Dean will be responsible for people leadership and management, including:

(a) chairing the faculty Work Health and Safety Committee;
(b) providing strong people leadership and management to all staff, including culture, mission, workforce planning, workload allocation and compliance;
(c) developing strategies to attract, engage and retain outstanding talent and for integrating University-wide workforce strategies and initiatives into the faculty;
(d) determining accountabilities and responsibilities within the Leadership Group to ensure effective leadership at both the faculty and school level;
(e) mentoring and supporting direct reports to instil similar leadership and management guidance for staff across the faculty;
(f) strategically overseeing talent management including recruitment, monitoring, promotion, performance management, retention and remuneration; and
(g) managing the performance and development targets for all direct reports.

(7) The Executive Dean will be responsible for community engagement including:
