(b) the Registrar or the Vice-Chancellor will impose a penalty in accordance with section 3.1; or

(c) no further action will be taken.

(3) When a student or former student admits in writing after the preliminary meeting that they have engaged in some, but not all, of the alleged conduct that constitutes misconduct, any investigation or hearing being undertaken by or on behalf of the University in relation to the alleged conduct will take account of the admission.

(4) After taking into account the student’s response, the factors specified in subsection 4.2(3) and any admission made after the preliminary meeting the Registrar may determine that a misconduct investigation is not warranted. No investigation will be conducted in those circumstances, and the Registrar will, within 10 working days of the admission:

(a) refer the matter to the Student Affairs Unit;

(b) refer the matter to the relevant faculty or administrative unit;

(c) issue a warning letter; or

(d) take no further action.

4.6 Misconduct investigation

(1) Investigations into allegations of misconduct will be conducted:

(a) by the Registrar or their nominee; or

(b) by the University’s Office of General Counsel or an external consultant, on referral by the Registrar; and

(c) where reasonably practicable, within 30 working days of the date of the Registrar’s decision, pursuant to section 4.4(3), to require an investigation.

(2) Any staff member or any student or former student who is asked by an investigator to attend a meeting for the purposes of a misconduct investigation is required to do so, but no person is obliged to answer any question.

Note: No adverse inference will be drawn from any person’s failure to answer any question.

(3) If at any time during an investigation a related allegation of misconduct is made against a student or former student, the investigator may investigate that allegation together with the existing allegations.

(4) When conducting an investigation under this section, an investigator will:

(a) give the student or former student information that is necessary to enable them to respond to the allegations;

(b) give the student or former student a reasonable opportunity to respond in writing and in person to the allegations and any documents provided;

(c) invite the student or former student to bring a support person or representative to any meeting;

(d) allow the student or former student to provide within a reasonable timeframe:

(i) any documentary information relevant to the allegations; and

(ii) the names of any witnesses who can provide information relevant to the allegations; and
(e) advise the student that failure by them to respond to the allegations within a reasonable timeframe will result in the investigation being conducted without their input.

(5) A decision by the investigator not to interview a witness, or refusal by a witness to be interviewed, for the purposes of the investigation will not invalidate the outcome of the investigation.

(6) At the conclusion of the investigation, the investigator will provide a report to the Registrar setting out:
(a) findings of fact relevant to the alleged conduct; and
(b) any findings of misconduct.

(7) Failure by a student or former student to engage with the investigation process will not prevent the investigator from making findings, or invalidate the outcome of the investigation.

4.7 Investigation outcome and notice

(1) The Registrar may accept or reject some or all of the findings set out in the investigation report and, within 15 working days of receipt of the report:
(a) decide to take no further action;
(b) decide to issue a warning;
(c) if they find that the student or former student is guilty of any conduct that constitutes misconduct, decide to impose a penalty in accordance with section 3.1; or
(d) refer the investigation report to the Vice-Chancellor.

(2) If the Registrar refers the investigation report to the Vice-Chancellor, the Vice-Chancellor may accept or reject some or all of the findings set out in the report and, within 15 working days of receipt of the report; decide to:
(a) take no further action;
(b) issue a warning; or
(c) if the Vice-Chancellor finds that the student or former student is guilty of misconduct, impose a penalty in accordance with section 3.1.

(3) If the Registrar or the Vice-Chancellor decides to take no further action, they will notify the student of that decision.

(4) If the Registrar or the Vice-Chancellor finds that a student or former student is guilty of misconduct and decides to impose a penalty in accordance with section 3.1, they will give the student:
(a) written notice of the finding of misconduct;
(b) written notice of the penalty; and
(c) a copy of the investigation report.

Note: See clauses 14 and 15 of the Resolution of Complaints Policy 2015 regarding the disclosure of information about the outcome of a complaint to a complainant or third party.

(5) If the student or former student does not lodge an appeal in accordance with Part 5, the penalty will be imposed on the student or former student.

   (a) a finding by the Registrar or Vice-Chancellor that the student or former student is guilty of misconduct;
   (b) a decision by the Registrar or Vice-Chancellor to impose a penalty.

(2) An appeal may only be made on one or more of the following grounds:

   (b) the finding of misconduct was:
       (i) made in breach of the requirements of procedural fairness;
       (ii) made in breach of a material requirement of this Rule;
       (iii) based on a material misunderstanding of the meaning or effect of a provision in this Rule;
       (iv) based on a material mistake as to the facts;
   (c) new evidence has become available to the student or former student, being evidence that:
       (i) is relevant;
       (ii) was not available or known to the student or former student at the time of responding to the allegation; and
       (iii) could reasonably be expected to affect the finding of misconduct or the penalty imposed;
   (d) the penalty to be imposed on the student or former student is excessive or inappropriate.

Note: Failure by a student or former student to obtain or provide evidence that could reasonably have been available or known to them at the time of responding to the allegation is not a valid ground of appeal.

(3) Any appeal must:
   (a) be lodged in writing with the Student Affairs Unit within 20 working days of the date of the notice referred to in section 4.7(4);
   (b) specify one or more grounds of appeal, as prescribed in section 5.1(2); and
   (c) attach all relevant supporting documentation.

(4) If the Director, Student Affairs confirms that the requirements under section 5.1(3) have been met, an appeal will be heard by a Student Disciplinary Appeals Committee.

(1A) Any written submissions from or on behalf of the student or former student must be received by the Chair of the Committee no less than 5 working days prior to the scheduled hearing date.

(2) A support person or representative of the student or former student has no right to be heard, except with consent of the Chair of the Committee.

(3) The Committee:
   (a) will determine its own procedures;
   (b) is not bound by the rules of evidence; and
   (c) may inform itself on any matter relevant to the grounds of appeal in any manner that it thinks fit;

   (iii) the penalty.

(8) All appeal hearings will be conducted in private.

5.4 Failure by a student to attend an appeal hearing

(1) If a student or former student fails to attend an appeal hearing, the Committee may:

(a) adjourn the hearing; or
(b) if the student or former student has not provided a reasonable excuse for failing to attend the hearing, decide the matter in the absence of the student or former student.

(2) If an appeal hearing is adjourned in accordance with section 5.4(1), the Chair of the Committee will cause the student or former student to be given written notice:

(a) that the hearing is adjourned;
(b) of the new date, time and location of the adjourned hearing; and
(c) that the adjourned hearing will proceed on that date, notwithstanding any further absence of the student or former student.

5.5 Appeal outcome and notice

(1) A decision of the Committee requires a simple majority.

(2) The Committee may uphold or dismiss an appeal.

(3) If the Committee upholds an appeal, it may, in its absolute discretion and as relevant:

(b) quash the finding of the Registrar or Vice-Chancellor that the student or former student is guilty of misconduct, and substitute a new finding;

(i) take no further action;
(ii) issue a warning;
(iii) substitute a new penalty; or
(iv) refer the matter to the relevant faculty or administrative unit.

(4) If the Committee dismisses an appeal:

(a) the finding by the Registrar or Vice-Chancellor that the student or former student is guilty of misconduct will stand; and

(b) the decision by the Registrar or Vice-Chancellor to impose a penalty will stand.

(5) As soon as possible and no later than 20 working days following the hearing, the Committee will give the student or former student and the Registrar written notice of:

(a) the outcome of the appeal;

(b) any penalty to be imposed in accordance with section 5.5(3);

(c) reasons for the Committee’s decision; and

(d) the student’s right to appeal to the NSW Ombudsman.

Note: See clauses 14 and 15 of the Resolution of Complaints Policy 2015 regarding the disclosure of information about the outcome of a complaint to a complainant or third party.

(3) The Registrar may extend a suspension made in accordance with this section up to a maximum period of three months.

6.3 Removal of a student from a class, building or area

(1) A University staff member or affiliate may require a student to temporarily leave a class or activity (including an online class or activity), a building, or a specified part of University lands where, in the reasonable opinion of the staff member or affiliate:

PART 7 DISQUALIFYING CIRCUMSTANCES

7.1 Termination of candidature where disqualifying circumstances exist

(1) Subject to this section, the Registrar may terminate the candidature of a student if one or more of the following disqualifying circumstances exist:

(a) the student, or someone acting on the student’s behalf, made a material misrepresentation in applying for admission to an award course;

(b) the student failed to disclose to the University a fact or circumstance material to its decision to admit the person to an award course; or

(c) the student was admitted to an award course on the basis of a degree, diploma or certificate obtained wholly or partly by fraud, academic misconduct or other dishonesty.

(b) because of those disqualifying circumstances the student’s candidature in the award course should be terminated;

the Registrar will terminate the student’s candidature in the award course.

(7) The Registrar will notify the student of the decision in writing, including reasons, as soon as possible after it is made.
