 - (a) rape (also called sexual assault) – the forced penetration of the vagina or anus of any person with any part of the body of another person (including their fingers), or with any object, without the first person’s consent;

 - (a) the complaint is about University related conduct; and
 - (b) the respondent is a current student, staff member or affiliate of the University.

14 Confidentiality

- (1) Except as provided in subclause 15(7), the University will keep confidential all information relating to a disclosure or complaint of sexual misconduct or sexual harassment, unless the student or former student consents to disclosure of part or all of the information for a specified purpose.
- (2) Subject to this clause, complainants and respondents must keep confidential:
 - (a) the identity of the complainant, the respondent and participants in the resolution or investigation of a complaint;
 - (b) the information provided or collected during the resolution or investigation of a complaint;

15 Reports to the NSW Police

- (1) The University supports the right of students and former students who have experienced sexual misconduct or sexual harassment to decide whether they want to report the incident to the NSW Police, or not.

Note: Students and former students may also elect to contact the NSW Anti-Discrimination Board or the Australian Human Rights Commission to make a complaint of sexual harassment under anti-discrimination legislation.
- (2) A student or former student may decide to make a disclosure or complaint of sexual misconduct or sexual harassment to the University, but not report the incident to the Police. Alternatively, they may decide to report sexual misconduct or sexual harassment to the Police, but not to make a disclosure or complaint to the University.
- (3) A person's decision to make a report to the Police will not necessarily preclude the University from investigating or taking action in response to sexual misconduct or sexual harassment. However, any internal University process may have to be suspended pending completion of the criminal process.

- (4) When deciding whether to suspend an internal University process pending completion of a criminal process, the University will consult the Police and the complainant and will consider:
- (a) the potential for the internal process to impede or contaminate the criminal process;
 - (b) the potential for the criminal process to impede or contaminate the internal process; and
 - (c) whether investigating or responding to the incident has the potential to impact adversely on the rights of either or both the complainant or the respondent.
- Note: The standard of proof to be satisfied in University investigations of sexual misconduct and sexual harassment is 'on the balance of probabilities', which requires satisfaction on the evidence that the matter found to have occurred is more likely to have occurred than not. The University will take into account the nature and seriousness of the alleged conduct when deciding whether the standard of proof is met. The standard of proof used in criminal investigations and trials is 'beyond reasonable doubt', which is a higher evidentiary standard of proof.
- (5) The University is required to report information about the commission of a 'serious indictable offence' to the Police in accordance with sections 316 and 316A of the Crimes Act 1900 \(NSW\).
- Note: A 'serious indictable offence' is an offence that is punishable by imprisonment for five years or more, such as conduct referred to in this policy as rape (also called sexual assault) or sexual touching.
- (6) If a student or former student decides not to report an incident of sexual misconduct to the Police, the University will use its best efforts to protect the confidentiality of information relating to their disclosure or complaint, while meeting its obligations under the Crimes Act 1900 \(NSW\).
- (7) In some limited circumstances, the University may need to report an incident of sexual misconduct to the Police against a person's wishes, to ensure their safety or the safety of other members of the University community, or to meet its legal obligations.
- (8) The University will inform the student or former student before reporting an incident of sexual misconduct to the Police.

16 Active bystander intervention

- (1) The University encourages and values reasonable safe active bystander intervention by members of the University community to prevent or stop sexual misconduct and sexual harassment from occurring or continuing.
- (2) The steps involved in safe active bystander intervention are:
- (a) noticing the situation – paying attention to what is going on nearby;
 - (b) deciding if it is a problem – investigating whether someone might need help, and checking with people around if unsure;
 - (c) accepting responsibility to take action – not assuming someone else will do something;
 - (d) making a plan to step in – indirectly or directly confronting the issue, without being aggressive or putting oneself or others in danger.

 - (a) making a disclosure or a complaint of sexual misconduct or sexual harassment;
 - (a) providing information about a disclosure or a complaint of sexual misconduct or sexual harassment;
 - (b) supporting a person who has made a disclosure or complaint of sexual misconduct or sexual harassment; or
 - (c) engaging in reasonable safe active bystander intervention.
- (2) A breach of this clause may result in disciplinary action including, where the person is a student, action under the University of Sydney \(Student Discipline\) Rule 2016.

18 Opportunity to be heard

- (1) Complaints of sexual misconduct and sexual harassment will be resolved sensitively, fairly, confidentially and with a minimum of disruption, while following the principles of procedural fairness.
- (2) Complainants and respondents will have a reasonable opportunity to state or respond to a complaint orally and in writing, and to provide any documents relevant to the complaint.
- (3) Complainants and respondents may be accompanied to any meeting by a support person, if they wish.
- (4) At no time will the complainant and respondent be required to meet with or to participate in any activity with one another, unless they have both given their prior informed consent.

19 Interim measures

- (1) Interim measures should not be interpreted as anticipating or revealing the outcome of any University or criminal investigation process.
- (2) In order to minimise the potential for harm to any person, the Registrar may take interim measures against a student in response to:
 - (a) a complaint of sexual misconduct or sexual harassment against the student, pending:
 - (i) resolution of the complaint;
 - (ii) investigation of the complaint;
 - (iii) the conclusion of an internal disciplinary process; or
 - (iv) criminal investigation and hearing; or
 - (b) an Apprehended Violence Order, whether interim or final.

- (3) As an interim measure the Registrar may:
- (a) suspend a student from entering specified parts of the University's lands;
 - (b) restrict a student's access to particular classes;
 - (c) restrict a student's access to specified University buildings, facilities or accommodation; or
 - (d) prohibit a student from speaking to or approaching another person (including by social media, email, letter or through a third party);
- for such period, and on such terms, as the Registrar considers necessary.
- (4) Interim measures must be:
- (a) taken on a case-by-case basis;
 - (b) set for a fixed period of time; and
 - (c) reasonable and proportionate;
- having regard to the seriousness and circumstances of the alleged conduct.
- (5) Interim measures may be taken summarily, and the Registrar:
- (a) is not required to provide a hearing to the student before making a decision; and
 - (b) may inform themselves in relation to any matter in any manner that they think fit.
- (6) Interim measures once taken will continue to apply until they:
- (a) are revoked or varied by the Registrar; or
 - (b) expire in accordance with their terms.
- (7) The Registrar must notify the student of the imposition of interim measures within 24 hours of doing so, and provide the information specified in the Student Sexual Misconduct Response Procedures 2018.
- (8) A student who is the subject of interim measures may seek an internal review of those measures by application to the Student Affairs Unit, in the manner specified in the Student Sexual Misconduct Response Procedures 2018.
- (9) Nothing in this policy or the Student Sexual Misconduct Response Procedures 2018 affects the power of:
- (a) the Registrar to suspend a student in accordance with the University of Sydney \(Student Discipline\) Rule 2016; or
 - (b) a University representative to issue a Termination of License Notice in accordance with the University of Sydney \(Campus Access\) Rule 2009.

20 Vexatious complaints

- (1) A student or former student must not make a vexatious or malicious complaint of sexual misconduct or sexual harassment.
- (2) For the purposes of this policy, a complaint will be considered vexatious or malicious if the student or former student makes it:
- (a) knowing it to be false; and
 - (b) for the primary purpose of damaging the University or the person against whom the complaint is made.

- (3) Making such a complaint may result in disciplinary action including, where the person is a student, action under the University of Sydney \(Student Discipline\) Rule 2016.

20A Educational measures to prevent sexual misconduct and sexual harassment

- (1) Subject to clause 20A(2), the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Education):
