SCHEDULE 1 – Academic Support ................................................. 13
PART 1 - PRELIMINARY

1 Name of policy
This is the Support for Students Policy 2023.

2 Commencement
This policy commences on 1 January 2024.

3 Policy is binding
Except where expressly stated, this policy binds the University, staff, students and affiliates.

4 Statement of intent
This policy:

(a) states the University’s commitment to:
   (i) supporting students academically; and
   (ii) making the University safe for students;
(b) sets out the University's responsibilities for supporting students' success;
(c) sets out processes for identifying and supporting students at risk of not successfully completing their studies; and
(d) is published in accordance with the University’s obligations under the Higher Education Support Act 2003 (Cth).

5 Application
(1) This policy applies to:
   (a) the University, staff, students and affiliates; and
   (b) any University-related conduct or activities affecting students.

(2) This policy does not apply to units of study with a credit point value of zero.

(3) This policy must be read together with University Rules, policies, procedures, faculty resolutions and course resolutions.
6 Definitions

(1) In this policy:

census date has the meaning given in the Coursework Policy. That is:

means the date on which a student’s enrolment in a unit of study becomes final early feedback task has the meaning given in the Assessment Procedures. That is:

an assessment conducted prior to the census-date of the semester or teaching block in which the unit is offered. A pre-census assessment task will normally have a low weight in the assessment framework for the unit and may have no weight (0%).

faculty means a faculty or a University school, as appropriate

Note: See University of Sydney (Governance of Faculties and University Schools) Rule.

Learning Hub means the unit in the Pro Vice-Chancellor (Student Life) team that supports students to develop academic and study skills.

LMS means learning management system. This is the online system that hosts unit of study websites.

SCANA means the Student Communication and Needs Analysis. This is a diagnostic and support program for language and academic skills. It is delivered by the Learning Hub.

Student Wellbeing means the unit in the Pro Vice-Chancellor (Student Life) team that supports student health and wellbeing.

unit of study has the meaning given in the Learning and Teaching Policy. That is:

means the smallest stand-alone component of an award course that is recordable on a student’s transcript. Units of study have an integer credit point value, normally six credit points, except where approved by the Academic Board.

PART 2 - SUPPORT FOR STUDENTS

7 Identifying students at risk of not successfully completing their units of study

(1) The University provides services and systems to help identify students at risk of not successfully completing a unit of study.
(2) Subject to subclause 7(4), a student may be at risk of not successfully completing a unit of study if they:
   (a) do not achieve a satisfactory result in an early feedback task in a 1000 level unit of study;
   (b) have not actively engaged with the University's LMS by:
       (i) 5:00PM on Wednesday in Week 2 of a 1000 level unit; or
       (ii) 5:00PM on Day 2 of a 1000 level intensive unit;
   (c) enrolled in a unit of study, which is not taught in intensive mode, after 5:00PM on Wednesday in Week 2 of a 1000 level unit; or
   (d) have previously failed a unit of study.

(3) A student who reports academic or other risk factors may also be identified as at risk.

(4) The Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Education) may exempt a unit of study from the requirements under subclauses 7(2) (a) – (c). These exemptions are listed in Schedule 3.

8 Providing academic support

(1) The University provides support to help students successfully complete their units of study.

(2) Academic support may include:
   (a) academic advisory services;
   (b) Learning Hub services;
   (c) peer mentoring programs; or
   (d) other relevant supports.

(3) Students may apply to the University for academic support.

(4) For students who have failed a unit of study, as provided in subclause 7(2)(d), Student Administration Services will contact the student by email with information about support services.

(5) All identifications, referrals, and support provided must be recorded.

  Note: See Recordkeeping Policy.

(6) Where possible, the University will communicate with students identified as being at risk and direct them to support services before the census date.

  Note: See clause 10.

(7) Students admitted under the following special admission programs may receive additional support as part of the program:
   (a) MySydney Scholars Program; and
   (b) Gadigal Program.

(8) Students identified as being at risk of not meeting progression requirements under clause 91 of the Coursework Policy will be advised of available support services, in accordance with that policy.
9 Providing non-academic support

(1) The University offers a wide range of non-academic services to support students and enable them to remain engaged with their units of study. These include:

(a) individual counselling services;
(b) health and wellbeing services;
(c) inclusion and disability services; and
(d) financial support.

Note: See Schedule 2 for a list of non-academic support services available to students. See also Schedule 2 of the Students Critical Incident Procedures and Schedule 2 of the Student Sexual Misconduct Response Procedures.

(2) Students may contact Student Wellbeing for non-academic support.

(3) Staff may inform the University about students who may require targeted academic or non-academic support by submitting a Student Wellbeing Care Report.

(4) Student Wellbeing will review contacts and referrals, and provide students with a response.

(5) All identifications, referrals, and support provided must be recorded.

Note: See Recordkeeping Policy.

10 Access to support services before census date

(1) The University aims to provide access to support services before the relevant census date for students:

(a) identified as at risk under subclause 7(2);
(b) who request support before the census date; or
(c) who disclose risk factors that indicate a need for support.

(2) The University website includes information about response times for students who contact the Student Centre.

(3) Consistently with the Coursework Policy, a student may discontinue enrolment in a unit of study before the census date:

(a) without financial liability for the units of study; and
(b) with an outcome of 'withdrawn' (WD).

Note: See clause 70 of the Coursework Policy.

(4) If it is apparent before census date that a student is likely to be absent for an extended period, the faculty should:

(a) discuss with the student the option of withdrawal without failure; and
(b) inform the student of relevant support services.
11 Identifying students in need of targeted academic support

(1) The Learning Hub provides academic support for students, including:
   (a) targeted academic language and learning support; and
   (b) targeted mathematics and numeracy support.

(2) Learning Hub supports may take the form of:
   (a) one-to-one consultations, online or in person;
   (b) drop-in sessions;
   (c) academic skills workshops;
   (d) peer-assisted study sessions;
   (e) peer-facilitated conversational English language programs; and
   (f) self-access online resources.

Note: See Schedule 1 for weblinks to the Learning Hub Canvas site.

(3) Faculties may use Learning Hub or other services to identify students in need of targeted academic support.

(4) Staff may refer a student for additional academic support, including relevant study resources and targeted support.

   Note: See the Learning Hub Student Referral form.

12 Academic adjustment arrangements

(1) Academic adjustment arrangements are available for students. These include:
   (a) simple extensions;
   (b) special consideration;
   (c) accessible examination and assessment conditions for students registered with Inclusion and Disability Services; and
   (d) special arrangements for assessments.

Note: See clauses 81-85 of the Coursework Policy, and clauses 12-14 of the Assessment Procedures.

13 Peer support services and other supports

(1) The University provides access to peer support services and other supports. These include:
   (a) peer support advisers;
   (b) peer learning advisers;
   (c) peer mentoring programs;
   (d) peer-assisted study sessions;
   (e) the Mentoring Our Brothers and Sisters Program, for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students;
   (f) co-curricular programs team, to assist students in University accommodation; and
(g) peer-facilitated sexual health and consent training for international students.

Note: See Schedules 1 and 2 for links to peer support services available to students.

14 Support from academic staff

(1) At the beginning of the teaching block, the Unit of Study Coordinator will send an email to students that:
   (a) welcomes them to the unit of study; and
   (b) includes information on available support.

(2) Academic staff may identify a student as at risk of not completing a unit of study if the student:
   (a) demonstrates low engagement with the unit content;
   (b) has assessment results that indicate a risk of failing;
   (c) is enrolled in a 1000 level unit that is not listed in Schedule 3 and:
      (i) does not achieve a satisfactory result in an early feedback task;
      (ii) does not log into the LMS by the time specified in subclause 7(2)(b); or
      (iii) enrols after the time specified in subclause 7(2)(c); or
   (d) contacts the staff member about matters that may be affecting their study.

(3) A staff member who identifies a student as at risk under subclause 14(2)(a)-(b) should contact the student by email.
   (a) The staff member should state their concerns about the student’s progress and inform them about available support services.

(4) If the student is identified under subclause 14(2)(c), the Unit of Study Coordinator should contact the student by email before the census date.
   (a) The email should inform the student about options for support.
   (b) Options for support include:
      (i) learning advice support;
      (ii) unit-specific support;
      (iii) enrolment advice; and
      (iv) other support, including wellbeing and financial support.
   (c) If the student is satisfied they can continue in the unit they may opt to receive no further support.
   (d) The correspondence must be recorded in the student record keeping system.

Note: See subclause 5(12) of the Assessment Procedures.
(5) If the identified student has contacted a staff member about matters impacting their study, the staff member should provide the student with:

(a) details of when the staff member will be available to provide academic advice;
(b) information about special consideration, simple extensions, or special arrangements; and
(c) links to available support services.

(6) If a student has reported:

(a) a critical incident, the response must be managed under the Student Critical Incident Procedures;
(b) sexual misconduct or sexual harassment, the response must be managed under the Student Sexual Misconduct Policy and Student Sexual Misconduct Response Procedures.

15 Crisis and critical harm responses

All crisis and critical harm response arrangements will be managed under the Student Critical Incident Procedures.

Note: See also the University Emergency Response Plan.

16 Inclusive support services

(1) The University provides a range of age, cohort, and culturally appropriate support services.

(2) For Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students, these include:

(a) access to cultural resources in the University Library;
(b) a Wellbeing and Cultural Safety Officer in the Pro-Vice-Chancellor (Student Life) team to assist with accommodation at regional and remote campuses;
(c) an Indigenous Tutorial Assistance Scheme operated by the Gadigal Centre; and
(d) the Wingara Mura Resource Centre and culturally safe spaces.

(3) For students registered with Inclusion and Disability Services, these include:

(a) a faculty Academic Plan Lead – Disability in each faculty to assist with adjustments; and
(b) a registration form for students to obtain support from Inclusion and Disability Services.

(4) For international students below the age of 18, these include:

(a) appropriate accommodation, support, and welfare arrangements;
(b) appropriate checking and monitoring of the suitability of these arrangements;

Note: See the Under 18 International Students Policy and the Under 18 International Students Procedures.

(5) For students affected by critical incidents, see the Students Critical Incidents Procedures.
(6) For students who have experienced sexual misconduct or sexual harassment, see the Student Sexual Misconduct Policy and Student Sexual Misconduct Response Procedures.

(7) Academic adjustments, simple extensions, special arrangements, and special consideration due to illness, injury or misadventure are available to coursework students, under Part 14 of the Coursework Policy.

17 Academic advisers

(1) Faculties provide academic advisers to advise students about their studies and academic progression.

(2) The University offers regular student advising hubs to connect students to course planning advice from academic and specialist staff.

Note: See Academic Advice webpage for further information.

18 Privacy

The Privacy Policy and the Privacy Procedures apply.

PART 3 - REVIEW AND REPORTING

19 Review

(1) The Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Education) will consult annually with key stakeholders about:

(a) implementation of this policy;
(b) resources required to maintain effective support to students;
(c) lessons learned; and
(d) if necessary, proposed amendments to this policy.

(2) The Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Education) will provide the outcomes of the annual review to the:

(a) University Executive Education Committee;
(b) University Executive; and
(c) Academic Board.

20 External reporting

The University will provide reports to the Department of Education about the implementation of this policy, as required by legislation.

Note: See Higher Education Support Act 2003 (Cth)
21 Responsibilities

(1) The University is responsible for:

   (a) providing services and systems to identify students at risk of not successfully completing a unit of study;

   (b) providing appropriate support services for students;

   (c) communicating information about its student support systems and services:

      (i) to the general public, through the University website and Policy Register;

      (ii) to students generally, through email; and

      (iii) for students identified as being at risk, through direct contact.

(2) Students are responsible for:

   (a) actively engaging with their units of study and academic requirements;

   (b) asking for support if they think it is required;

   (c) regularly checking their student University email;

   (d) engaging with support services when contacted by the University; and

   (e) maintaining a cooperative and collaborative approach towards support services.
