PART 1 – PRELIMINARY

1.1 Name of Rule

This is the University of Sydney (Delegations of Authority) Rule 2024.

1.2 Commencement

This Rule commences on 25 March 2024.

1.3 Statement of intent

(1) This Rule provides for the Senate to delegate its functions and activities to:

- (a) University committees;
- (b) authorities;
- (c) officers;
- (d) employees;
- (e) consultants; and
- (f) contractors.

(2) Delegation of the power to borrow was effected by cognate resolution of the Senate passed at the same time as adoption of this amended Rule.

Note: See the limitation of the authority to delegate the power by way of Rule in section 37 of the Act.

1.4 Effect

(1) The Senate delegates the functions and activities set out in Parts 4 – 6 of this Rule to the individuals and groups specified.

- (a) No individual or group may exercise any of the functions and activities set out in Parts 4 – 6 without delegated authority.
- (b) The relevant delegate may ratify a decision made or action taken without the appropriate delegated authority.

(2) Nothing in this Rule invalidates past acts validly performed by delegates.

(3) This Rule prevails over any University policy, procedure or guideline which is inconsistent with this Rule.

(4) Delegates must ensure that they are familiar with, and comply with:

- (a) the University of Sydney Act 1989;
- (b) the University of Sydney By-law 1999;
- (c) delegated legislation (such as rules of the University) as amended from time to time;
- (d) applicable industrial instruments (i.e. the University's Enterprise Agreement, Awards, Australian Workplace Agreements, and Individual Transitional Employment Agreements); and
- (e) University policies, procedures, and guidelines, as amended from time to time (except to the extent of any inconsistency with this Rule).

PART 2 – PRINCIPLES GOVERNING THE EXERCISE OF DELEGATIONS

- (1) Delegations are made to positions, not to particular individuals. A delegation may be exercised by the occupant of the position named in this Rule.
- (2) Except as provided for in this Rule, delegates must not sub-delegate any or all of their delegated functions to another person or group, by way of an agency or in any other way.
- (3) Delegates must:
 - (a) be formally appointed in writing to a continuing, temporary or acting position before they can exercise a delegation allocated to that position;
 - (b) only exercise functions or powers delegated to them and within their accountability area, unless otherwise specified;
 - (c) only incur expenditure if it is within an approved budget or they are satisfied on reasonable grounds that there is another approved source of funds;
 - (d) before exercising a delegation to approve a transaction, estimate the cost of the transaction as a whole, over the term of the transaction. In doing so:
 - (i) the delegate must take into account the total spending commitment during the life of a contract, including past and likely future extensions and variations;
 - (ii) a transaction must not be assessed in components or parts, such as instalments, tranches, or the cost of individual items;
 - (iii) the total gross cost of the transaction (including all taxes and duties other than goods and services tax (GST)) must be estimated; and
 - (iv) no reduction may be made for any set-off, trade-in or the like.
- (4) Where a delegate proposes to exercise a Human Resources delegation which would directly affect the occupant of a position which directly reports to the delegate, the delegate must obtain the approval of their supervisor before exercising the delegation.
- (5) If the Gift Acceptance Committee advises a delegate that a potential gift, bequest, devise or sponsorship should not be accepted, the delegate must refer the matter to the Vice-Chancellor, who will refer it to Senate for decision.

Note: See Gift Acceptance Policy 2013.
- (6) Delegates may:
 - (a) exercise any preliminary or ancillary administrative function or power related to a delegated function or power;
 - (b) obtain expert advice and consult relevant stakeholders before exercising a delegated function, provided that the delegate retains ultimate responsibility and accountability for the exercise of the delegation; and

- (c) subject to any financial limits:
 - (i) negotiate all terms for entering into a contract or other document effecting a transaction;
 - (ii) vary or amend the terms of that contract or document; and
 - (iii) execute a contract or other document;within their delegation.
- (7) A delegation to a position with a particular level of seniority may be exercised by a person with a higher level of seniority:
 - (a) even if there is no position at the level of the original delegation reporting to them in their line of accountability;
 - but
 - (b) only in accordance with the terms of the delegation and within the person's area of accountability.
- (8) If a delegation is formally assigned to a position which does not exist within a particular organisational unit (for example, a delegation to a Head of School in a faculty which does not have schools) it must be exercised by the next highest position within that organisational unit.
- (9) Delegations to a faculty or University school must be exercised by a resolution of the faculty or University school board, in accordance with the University of Sydney \(Governance of Faculties and University Schools\) Rule 2016.
- (10) If a delegation confers power on a committee to approve a transaction, any documentation of that transaction may be signed by the Vice-Chancellor, or such other person as the Vice-Chancellor nominates in writing.
- (11) The Vice-Chancellor has authority to exercise any delegations made by Senate in this Rule, except for delegations:
 - (a) made to a member or Committee of Senate;
 - (b) relating to the terms of appointment, resignation or retirement of the Vice-Chancellor; or
 - (c) affecting positions which directly report to the Vice-Chancellor in circumstances which are required by this Rule to be exercised by another delegate.
- (12) If Senate or an authorised delegate approves a change to:
 - (a) the University's administrative structure; or
 - (b) the title of an employee's position,with the effect that there is a reassignment of responsibility for a particular delegated function, authority to perform that delegated function is reassigned accordingly.

PART 3 – INTERPRETATION

- (1) The delegations are specified in table form. They use a standard framework with the following elements:

consult	lists positions which should, in appropriate circumstances, be consulted before a delegation is exercised.
